Thank you for your humorous and timely presentation. One evaluation sheet suggested we have you at every IAAP Conference.

You shared story after story and continued throughout holding our interest, making us think about what we would do in different situations, and laughing at ourselves. I would recommend you as a speaker for the International Association of Administrative Professionals.

The saying "Laughter is the best medicine" is very true and you definitely achieved that. Everyone I spoke to said the same thing. You are a wonderful speaker.
