

Victory Performance Consulting

Helping good people change the world.

ESSENTIAL SKILLS FOR REMOTE WORKING

Tried-and-True Tips for the New Normal of Work

Although remote working became the new norm recently, some professionals have been working this way and leading remote teams for years. That's great news if you're new to remote working! In this program you will learn tried-and-true best practices from an expert who has been working remotely and managing a remote team for a decade. Want to be more efficient and effective while working remotely? This program is for you!

Format and Duration:

Online (worldwide); 4-8 hours

Learning Objectives:

- Design a workspace that enhances your focus
- Develop routines that maximize your time, energy, and productivity
- Avoid and overcome common struggles of remote working
- Increase collaboration with remote colleagues and clients

Leadership Competencies:

- Balancing priorities
- Leading effective teams

Fields of Study:

- Personal / professional development
- Business management and organization