We do humbly present a video of myself—that is, Evan—performing the song Phase on an acoustic guitar in the chilly front porch enclosure of our house—that is, Amperland studios, aka PGHQ, aka the house featured in the Command S documentary series about the making of Skylight, aka a rare & strange falling apart Dutch farmhouse built in 1731(!).

Our new album Marigold which was also recorded here (inside, not on the porch) is coming out Jan 17 & is presently available for preorder. Tickets for US & Europe presently on sale. Thanks as always for listening!

Much love,
Evan & pg
