October 20, 2019

We welcome you in the name of the Lord Jesus.

We are honored with your presence. If you do not have a church home, you are invited to join us regularly. Please introduce yourself to Pastor Jeremy Lucke as you leave today and sign the guest book in the entryway. You may also wish to complete one of the pew cards and drop it in the offering plate. Beverages, snacks and fellowship time follow the service in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is welcome.

The ringing of the bell and the lighting of the Christ candle mark the beginning of our service and a time for quiet meditation, prayer and inward reflection as we begin our worship.

Holy Communion is celebrated every first, third and fifth Sundays of the month and will follow the order of service in the bulletin.

Guests, if you are a baptized Christian and share our faith in Jesus as Savior and have been instructed in the meaning and use of the Lord's Supper, you are invited to come to the altar. If you prefer grape juice to wine, take a cup from the center of the communion tray. We also have gluten-free wafers available. If you desire a gluten-free wafer, ask the server. May the body and blood of Jesus, present in the bread and wine, be a blessing to you. There are times during the service when you will be asked to stand if you are able. Please feel free to remain seated if standing is difficult.

Children are welcome at our worship services. However, if you prefer, Peace Lutheran has a nursery equipped for children three years old and younger. The room is unstaffed and can be accessed via the hallway from the narthex. There is a speaker that will allow you to listen to the service. You are also welcomed to use the Fellowship Hall and hallway to walk a noisy child; it also has speakers. Please speak to an usher if you need assistance.

SPECIAL FELLOWSHIP OCTOBER 27: Nancy Abernathy, Cheryl Miller, & Sandi Labahn are planning a special Fellowship Hour and will be providing all the food for this social time.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY: November 3 is All Saints' Sunday and we would like to start getting names of those people you would like to see remembered during this service.

BAZAAR: November 10th, 2019: think back, did the past week fly by? the bazaar is just 20 days away and closing in fast. Projects completed? Good for you! Still need ideas? Just ask. Rather shop? How about bringing those items for the baskets they are due now? Prefer to bake? The homemade cookies are a must and other goodies of all kinds are welcome please, no pudding-based items.

Granny's Attic? Yes, it's back again this year. Gently used items can be brought the week of the sale. Help the day of the sale? Yes, there's always room for more please ask if there's an area open that you would like to help.

GIFT BASKETS: These little beauties are a great way to help with the bazaar. Use your imagination and purchase the items that you think would go together in a gift basket. Think about what you would enjoy in a basket and I am sure it will go over well. All we need is the items...we have the baskets and the people to make the display look pretty! Let Kay Glathar know if you have any questions. YOU CAN START DROPPING ITEMS OFF THIS WEEKEND.

GETTING A RIDE: If you would like to be able to attend some of the evening events; or when Advent gets here, attend worship, please let the church office know so we can connect you to someone who is waiting to be asked to help out!
