SMALL GROUP APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. STUDY THE SCRIPTURE

Read 2 Peter 1:1-4. What problem does this passage address and what resources does it identify to help combat this problem? How are these resources helpful in regards to the problem? How do 2 Corinthians 1:20, Ephesians 3:20 and Romans 8:11 help you better understand, access and apply these resources?

2. ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Why are God's promises important to the Christian life? How have you seen God's promises help you follow Christ? How do God's promises specifically relate to escaping corruption and the Gospel? What promises of God can help you follow Christ better in your life right now?

How does the Gospel guarantee God's power in the life of a Christian? How have you seen God's power change or work in your life? What can you do to experience more of God's power in your life (according to these Scriptures)? Where do you need to experience more of God's power in your life right now?

3. APPLY THE TRUTH

Pursuing God and a great knowledge of Him is a lifelong pursuit. How have you seen growth in your knowledge of God throughout your Christian walk? How has this impacted your life and relationship with Him? What can you do moving forward to grow in a greater knowledge of God?
