

THE CAMPUS SERIES

Freerice.com

: This website is a fun, interactive site that provides rice to underprivileged nations that are in need of food. By answering questions correctly, you will fill your bucket, thus sending free rice to families in need! Use this service as a challenge during lunch periods, at a pep rally, during homerooms, study halls, or in classrooms.

SERVICE

Food Pantry Helpers

: Locate local food pantries that need help stocking shelves and loading trucks. Set up shifts and times for students to organize teams and sign up. Work with the food pantry to determine the best times to help and get students there to help!
