

Module #4: Who Am I?
STUDENT IMPACT ASSESSMENT

TOTAL SCORE: _____/15

QUESTION 1. A person with this type of communication style often prefers informality and likes to be on a first-name basis. He/she also tends to share personal views openly. Name the communication style. _____/1 points

QUESTION 2. A person with this type of communication style may seem withdrawn, stalling, unwilling or unable to act, or resistant to a dialogue. Name the communication style. _____/1 points

QUESTION 3. A person with this type of communication style often projects a serious attitude and an all-business, no-nonsense approach when communicating. Name the communication style. _____/1 points

QUESTION 4. A person with this type of communication style prefers to display warmth and cooperation in their communications. Name the communication style. _____/1 points

QUESTION 5. Define "values." _____/1 points

QUESTION 6. Name three examples of rules that may make up a culture's "code of conduct." _____/3 points

QUESTION 7. What is "empathy"? _____/1 points

QUESTION 8. This refers to the total system of values, beliefs, attitudes, traditions, and standards of behavior that regulate life within a particular group of people. _____/1 points

QUESTION 9. Name three things that may be a part of defining an individual's culture. _____/3 points

QUESTION 10. Most people tend to have two communication styles. Name your two styles. _____/2 points