Block Clubs Join in the Annual Holiday Food Drive for Our Neighbors in Need

For the second season (2018/2019) featured the most participating block clubs (13): Auburn-Lincoln Park, Central Tremont, Duck Island, Holmsten-Buhler-Rowley/Mentor-Castle-Clark, Irishtown Bend, Metro North, and North of Literary – up from four (4) in 2014 – and were joined by a Tremont West staff team. Last season’s holiday food drive featured the most canned goods, paper products, and non-perishable food items collected (6,614) – and the most money collected in cash and checks ($15,142). For the purposes of the Grand Prize in last season’s competition, which brought in more check donations than ever before, each dollar donated by check was considered to be two items (for example a $50 check donation was considered to be 100 items of canned goods or 100 points counted in the Grand Prize competition).

Last year, donations were taken to the food pantries at St. Augustine, Pilgrim, St. Michael, Westside Catholic Center in December– and late December donations were delivered in January, 2019 to all 8 food pantries to help re-stock for the new year.

Here’s How to Donate and the Guidelines for this Season’s Holiday Food Drive:

Tremont, Duck Island and Irishtown Bend Block Clubs Join in the Annual Holiday Food Drive for Our Neighbors in Need

This year, Metro North Block Club is inviting other block clubs to engage in “friendly competitions” to see which group could bring in the most in these 3 categories in the annual Tremont/Duck Island/Irishtown Bend Holiday Food Drive – of nonperishable food items and paper products along with cash and checks.

The ultimate goal is to help food pantries, like St. Augustine, Pilgrim, St. John Cantius, St. Michael, Immanuel Lutheran, St. Malachi, Westside Catholic Center, and Greater Cleveland Food Bank to feed our near west families and children in need in the holiday season. The “Grand Prize Winner” for the 2018/2019 challenge was Metro North – therefore, they are issuing the challenge for the upcoming 2019/2020 season.

This story is a history lesson for those too young to remember, and a fond memory for those old enough to know of those years. It includes tales of a powerful Lincoln High School football team that dominated for a few years during the early days of World War II. The Charity Game, as it was called, was designed as a one-time-only event in 1931 to raise money to bring some needed holiday joy and basic necessities to the poor and the needy struggling during the Great Depression. The organizers realized that first game was a huge hit and it’s ability to raise money for charity was limitless. It started a Thanksgiving tradition in Cleveland that would become the single biggest sporting event in the city’s history.

From 1931 to the final game in 1968, more than 1.3 million high school football fans would begin their Thanksgiving holiday by taking in one of the best high school football games of the season. The Charity Game set every attendance record for high school football in the state of Ohio, and in 1944 hosted the second largest crowd ever to watch a high school football game in the U.S. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were raised for the needy.

From the start of the “The Senate” League and the Catholic League or the Senate League or the Catholic League or the Senate League or the Charity Game. As mentioned earlier, the East Side teams dominated mainly because most of the people in the city lived there so there was no reason to file a lawsuit. The Charity Game in the 12-year history of the event. Collinwood alone at the top. They were the first west side team to win a game. The game was held to only 22 net yards of offense (all-time low in the 39-year history of the Charity Game) and they completed only 3 of 18 pass attempts. Its 11 net yards rushing was also an all-time Charity Game low.

In 1943 Lincoln’s opponent in the Charity Game was Cathedral Latin. Lincoln’s 29 straight games without a loss broke the old Cleveland record of 27 in a row set by the East High teams of 1935-1936. Cathedral Latin’s amazing record in the city championship games remained intact. They won over Lincoln by 18 - 12. The Catholic League 1944 team was also an all-time Charity Game low.

In 1943 Lincoln High School, a competitive team since the middle 1930’s was knocking on the door. In 1941, coach Glen Fraser’s Lincoln team did not have a regular gridiron to practice on. The team had to clear the field of rocks, tin cans, broken glass and had to cut what grass there was in order to give themselves a decent place to practice.

Lincoln High School continued to dominate the West Side League. Their Charity Games were held on Thanksgiving Day, the changing times of the 1960’s and the downtown area, put the sheep showed, seeing on TV of college games, move to the suburbs and out of Cleveland schools, combining of schools (Lincoln and West High, etc.), and various additional reasons caused the end of the Charity Game.

Visit www.tremontartsfestival.com for more information. Of Note: 2019 was the second year for the special four-year series: Focus on the Artists – which spotlights and celebrates minority and under-represented artists and contributes greatly to our community and NE Ohio. The inaugural year of the series, 2016, featured Sin Fronteras/ Beyond Borders: Celebrating Latino Visual and Performing Artists in Cleveland and NE Ohio to wide acclaim. This year’s spotlight also included LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) artists in a special Freedom and Love: 50th Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising exhibition featuring special galleries for the series’ established and Emerging LGBT Artists. We also welcomed the return of Sin Fronteras Beyond Borders: Celebrating Latino Visual and Performing Artists in Cleveland and NE Ohio. Thanks to our program presenters: Merrick House, Tremont West Development, Young Latino Network, Julia de Burgos Cultural Arts Center, AIDS Taskforce of Greater Cleveland, and the LGBT Community Center of Greater Cleveland. The Festival’s focus has always been on diversity, however, this series is about populations of artists. The artwork needs to meet standards of artistic excellence, but there is no specific topic or theme for the artwork. We’re focusing on the people creating the art. Similar formats will be followed for AfricAn/African American/Afro-Caribbean visual and performing artists in 2020. For more info on the special series and the 2020 Festival, contact Scott Rosenstein, Tremont Festival Manager at ScottRosenstein@tremontwest.org.

Most important of all is the goal: lending a helping hand to neighbors – families and children - in need in Tremont, Duck Island, and Irishtown Bend - and providing help to support the outstanding work of eight Cleveland food pantries-ministries: St. Augustine Church, Pilgrim Congregational Church UCC, Immanuel Lutheran Church, St. John Cardinal Church, St. Michael Church, St. Malachi Church, Greater Cleveland Foodbank, and

PLUS

ACTIVE PASSIVITY!
NOV. 14-16

Homos, or Everyone in America by Jordan Seavey, directed by Clyde Simon, is told through interweaving glimpses into the life of an everyday couple unexpectedly confronted by a vicious hate crime. Homos is a fearless, often funny, openly emotional examination of the moments that can bring two people together – or pull them apart.

“Homos makes its audience fall in love with it, and it will break your heart, make you laugh and even make you think.” (Roman Macharoni, Scene)

Homos, or Everyone in America runs Thurs-Sat at 8 pm through Nov 9 at the Liminis Theater 2438 Scranton Rd.

Active Passivity! by convergence-continuum 2019 playwriting intern, Jen Alexander runs for one weekend only, Thurs-Sat, Nov. 14-16 at 8 pm. The play is about a woman who is trying to find happiness after the fact that her life hasn’t gone the way she thought it would. She searches for a new way of life through dating men and exposing her body through different situations, but along the way she learns that to change her life for the better, starting completely over is not the end of the world.

Tickets are available at 216-687-0074 and convergence-continuum.org: $20 general admission, $15 seniors (65+) and $10 students. Tremont residents are admitted free for the Thursday show on Nov 7.

Call ahead to make reservations.

Convergence-continuum’s production of Homos, or Everyone in America is supported in part by the residents of Cuyahoga County through a public grant from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture.

CONVERGENCE-CONTINUUM PRESENTS

Mark your calendars and come help us celebrate one year of 818 Studios with a new fall group show titled INFINITE MADNESS. 17 Cleveland artists will present work exploring the digital flux of this mad mad world we live in.

Saturday November 2nd from 6-10 pm.

“Everything has a touch of digital madness to it these days. With this show I’m hoping to hone in on the madness. The sheer vastness of the medium makes for a unique era in the history of art and creativity. It snare the artistic young minds of the early 21st century and peaks the curiosity in the experienced conventional artists that have been producing for decades. I say let’s have a look at the medium as it stands today in it’s clear and present fallibility and diversity. The tools that are available, from the phone to the digital dark room to the electronic canvas are changing and improving constantly but there has to be a definitive end to the betterment of this medium, or does there? Let’s have a look at what we can express digitally in the flux state of this innovative movement and where it might take us in the future.”

A number of residents participated in a discussion about the electric scooters that are all over the neighborhood. Sgt. Betley said we need to focus on how we talk about the rules and regulations and whether to pull them from the streets. Lt. Betley provided the list of the scooters that were pulled from the streets in February, 2020, and members were encouraged to forward feedback to Block Club Co-Chairs or Cleveland City Ward 3 Councilman Kerry McCormack (kerry.mccormack@city.cleveland.oh.us) or contact MCC Co-Chairs Josh Wright (jwright.cle@gmail. om) or Community Involvement Manager, Scott Rosenzweig at 216.757.9816 or e-mail scottrosenstein@tremontwest.org. The Lucky Park mural project has been stalled as the St. Theodosius Church Council continues to not have or keep the current zip code of the property which the city has given them to use. A request concept requires their support as the property owner. Mr. Betley spoke to the need for everyone to try to locate the 501c3 letter so the Block Club can approach the city for funding or support. 501c3 letter so the Block Club can approach the city for funding or support.

Early detection and treatment of depression can help prevent children and young people lead fulfilling lives.

All kids have emotional ups and downs. Periods of moodiness, anxiety or irritability. It’s a normal part of growing up.

“However, any negative change in behavior — such as a change in mood or academic performance — that comes and stays is a red flag,” says Dr. Wimbiscus. “We might be able to prevent this by identifying children at higher risk and having them undergo early intervention.”

For this piece we began with three large extended phrases which I drew from to create more gestural sequences that I typically incorporate into my work,” Morckel explains. “Since we did not start the piece from any particular point [...], it gave us the more possibilities to determine where the work could go, (and) I think that the open ended development process, along with having the dancers possess some agency over the movement [... made the cast feel more involved in the choreography],” Jennifer Sandoval-Eccher, the choreographer behind Marquez Dance Project's Reflections Between Two Worlds, looked at her process collaboratively as well, “I'm working with a group of intelligent movers who have contributed greatly to this piece not only as movers but as critical thinkers,” she says, “I refer to our collaborative discussions the sections both physically and emotionally so that we can as the audience possibly.” Finding time to really discuss the work is important to Sandoval-Eccher’s process, so that her movers can contribute to the overarching goal of the piece. On top of the discussion, the process also included an improvisational, improvisational techniques as a way to generate movement. We built a level of trust that allowed us to perform with a sense of vulnerability,” she explains. “These artists I worked with embraced this journey with so much confidence, I feel honored to share the stage with them.” Reflections Between Two Worlds is the result of this collaborative effort. The dancers weave, push, and pull around each other, an embodiment of the theme on the dynamics between discord and harmony. Rather than take a path of reconciliation, however, Sandoval-Eccher pushed the two opposite forces further, “[There is not] reconciliation within the piece. The duality of discord and harmony is a continuous cycle, at least this is how we wanted to perceive it.” This work will be performed Friday, November 8th, during our Show 1 performance. Jennifer Sandoval-Eccher is a returning artist to the Cleveland Dance Fest... in 2016 she was part of the 1st officially kick off of Cleveland Dance Fest, which took place at The Breen Center in Ohio City. “Cleveland Dance Fest is an opportunity for a wider community to connect and share their experiences through technique classes and performances. I was honored to be a part of the first year and feel the organization has kept with their structure of building an ecletic line up of dance artists,” she says thoughtfully. “I feel the growth has been through the master classes and inviting artists outside of the Cleveland area. Although Cleveland does have a vibrant dance community I feel it's important to build connections outside of your neighborhood.” A movement to our Cleveland Dance Fest 2019 line-up below and check out the performance!
