

APRICOT CUP. Press a quart can of apricots through a sieve or jelly press, and to the pulp add a pint of water, the juice of one orange and two lemons, and a cupful of powdered sugar. Stir well, and when the sugar is dissolved add ice water to taste. Serve on cracked ice, with thin slices of orange or transparent sections of the peel floating on the top of each glass.