

CORN AND TOMATO TOAST makes a nice luncheon or supper dish. Cut off left-over corn in required amount, add to one pint one teaspoonful of sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of finely minced green sweet pepper, and enough very highly seasoned stewed tomato to moisten liberally—about two cupfuls; let come to a good boil, then heap on rounds of hot buttered toast that have been covered generously with

*Grated
Cheese*