

Sandwiches for a bridge party

Quite in keeping with the spirit of the afternoon, these clever little sandwiches, with bottles of your favorite beverage to keep them company, are exactly the light dainty refreshments you need. Molds for shaping them to "suit" are inexpensive and always useful.

Spade Sandwiches—Filled with caviar and cream cheese which has been softened with a little cream. Garnish with ripe olive slivers.

Heart Sandwiches—Filled with spiced ham and mustard or mayonnaise. Decorate with halved gherkins.

Club Sandwiches—Filled with sardines mixed to a paste in their own oil and a dash of lemon juice. Garnish with a sprig of watercress.

Diamond Sandwiches— Filled with hard cooked egg and pimiento mixed with mayonnaise. Garnish with slices of truffle.

If your bridge party is in the evening, a Japanese crabmeat salad with marshmallow garnishings may be added.
