

SURPRISE ROLLS—Make a rich biscuit-dough of one pint of flour, one teaspoonful of baking-powder, two tablespoonfuls of shortening, milk enough to make short dough; mince and season highly cooked chicken, binding with butter; form in small finger-sized rolls; wrap each with dough; bake in hot oven; serve cold with stuffed olives.