PERSONAL

In her spare time she paints in watercolor
and enjoys gardening.
Recently she set up a backyard chicken
coop for fresh eggs.

...if only (sigh) she had some chicks.

Food Nation Radio Bio

Food Nation Radio
Network grew out of one mom's frustration with the lack of transparency from the food production
industry.

Experts make the connection between the
foods we eat and the deteriorating health
nearly all Americans
