

The Connection School of Houston Secondary Principal

About The Connection School of Houston

The Connection School of Houston is a Christian community committed to discipling children to love God with all of their hearts, souls, and minds and to love others as themselves.

The school is founded on Matthew 22:37-40: "Jesus replied: 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

TCS is a Christian classical school that carries out its vision by using Scripture and the Seven Liberal Arts to cultivate wisdom and virtue in the lives of its students.
