

The Scale How Song

(Sung to the tune of "Riding Down to Bangor")

1. Do you want to study how to take a walk?
 2. Do you want to study why a bee it stings?
 3. Do you want to study what sloyd and car - ton mean?
 4. Do you want to study how to doh, mi, ray?
 5. Do you want to study how to read a - right?
 6. Yes, it's real a - maz - ing what know - ledge you can store. At

Be a Scale How student, and learn wild birds to stalk? You'll Be a Scale How stu - dent, you'll learn a lot of things.
 Be a Scale How stu - dent on mod - els you'll get keen. Just
 Be a Scale How stu - dent, learn "no - bis do - mi - ne."
 Be a Scale How stu - dent, At - tend a com - ic sight?
 Scale How, where they teach you to dust and sweep the floor. Knit al - so find a plea - sure In clim - ing in the sun To All a - bout the in - sects Spong - es, slugs and worms use your knife quite free - ly, and cut your fin - ger so,

 How to beat one bar in and keep your part all right, Stroke your nose quite gent - ly, Make sounds like bay! boh! boo! El - socks and weed the gar - den, clear ta - bles, play a hymn. Do find the height of moun - tains and why a stream doth run.

 Cat - er - pil - lars Scor - pi - ons, and all that give you squirms.
 Here is scope for gen - ius, and words like hang! dash! blow!
 While your next door neigh - bor out of tune is sing - ing quite.
 en - di - ten a - mong them, don't smile what e'er you do. Oh, all that you can think of, ex - cept - ing how to swim!