

PAPPAGEORGE
HAYMES

Medina Tower

AMMAN, JORDAN

Heritage Development Partners
300 Dwelling Units
60 Stories
1 Million GSF

This slender residential tower has a form derived from a pair of curved planes, one oriented towards the city center of Amman, Jordan to the southwest and the other to the northern mountains. Punctuated by an array of recessed balconies, these glassy facades create a sculptural form, standing out as an iconic structure within the more traditional urban fabric.

