ABOUT THE BOOKS:

Beato is a multi-cultural curious Norwegian Forest Cat who travels around the world to learn about what's beyond his suburban home in Atlanta. As he makes his way to Greenland, Israel, Indonesia and Japan in the first four books, he meets local kids, who become his tour guide for the rest of his stay. Together, they gather information about the country's landscapes, historic sites, food, animals, music, dance, and sports, through a series of enlightening adventures. The stories are based on real life events and actual pictures taken by the author during her journeys.

Through Beato, children will learn about different countries and cultures. Reading the book, designed in a lighthearted story telling manner, with vivid illustrations of destinations around the world, children will learn the value of accepting one another regardless of race, culture or nationality. Beato Goes To series of books make for great international learning tools.

Frequently Asked Questions

WHAT IS THE APPROPRIATE AGE GROUP FOR THESE BOOKS?

Beato Goes To picture books are meant for ages 4-8, though older kids enjoy it too.

HOW LONG DOES EACH PRESENTATION LAST?

Depending on the class size, age of the students and topics covered, presentations will be 30 minutes-2 hours.

WHAT DOES A TYPICAL PRESENTATION LOOK LIKE?

Each presentation is tailored to the class and curriculum. Typically, I would read the story, show pictures, talk about Beato the cat, and engage the students in Q&A. The books cover information about the country's facts (capital, currency, language, food, dress, animals), as well as introduces them to how kids live in that country. We would talk about the book writing process and I will tell them about my life as an author.

Additional resources such as coloring pages and augmented reality application can be provided to the students as well.

It is very helpful if the kids have a copy of the book in their hands and can follow along the picture pages.

Other topics I speak about include...

- Writing and journalism workshops
- Travel, socially responsible travel and volunteer travel
- Following your passion and finding your dream job
- Entrepreneurship and leadership

DO YOU REQUIRE ANY AV EQUIPMENT?

It would be nice to have a projector/ screen/ computer so I can show pictures on the screen.

CAN THE KIDS GET BOOKS AUTOGRAPHED?

Yes, I highly suggest that you send a book order form home in backpacks or post it on the school web page for parents to download beforehand (see example at the end of this document). The school can order discounted bulk copies, and put signing slips in each of the books with the child's name spelled out.

For over 30 signings, please collect the books beforehand with a slip of paper in each book with the child's name on it. Getting through a stack of books this way may be simpler than having 50 anxious children stand in line.

I cannot emphasize how important it is to have books available to be signed by the author. For many students, meeting an author in person is a once in a lifetime opportunity, especially if they have connected with her. Don't disappoint your students!

DO YOU CHARGE TO SPEAK?

Yes, author presentations involve a fee of $200/ hour plus mileage calculated at the IRS standard rate (53½ cents per mile as of 1-1-17). Out of state travel expenses including flight and lodging must be covered. If the driving distance is over 2 hours, overnight lodging may be required.

Author visits at book signings (no presentation) are free if I am within 30 miles of you.

WHERE DO THE FUNDS COME FROM TO PAY FOR A SCHOOL VISIT?

There are many possible sources for funding school visits:

- Your school, library or organization may have discretionary funds that could be budgeted for future school visits.
- Many educators write grants to obtain funds to cover several school visits within the year.
- Other educators hold book fairs, or other fund-raising events, and use the proceeds to help fund school visits.
- PTA fund-raising activities could be allocated for author/illustrator school visits.

HOW CAN YOU PREPARE FOR MY VISIT?

- ✓ Books: I recommend that you place your book order at least 6-8 weeks through my publisher Mascot Books, before the author appearance.
- ✓ Marketing: Prior to the day of the event, make a display of posters and books, for the library or lobby, so that all will know this wonderful visit is happening.
- ✓ Check the author's website (www.beatogoesto.com and www.suchetarawal.com) for information about biography and presentations.

- ✓ Schedule: Make sure to go over ALL planned activities with me beforehand.
- ✓ Materials: Ascertain what I will need for the presentations (pens, pads, microphone, slide projector, podium, a room that can be darkened for slide presentations, etc.).
- ✓ Preparing Students: Prior to the visit, urge the teachers to talk about the author's visit, allow the students to read at least one of the books, and even ask the kids to write questions on a file card in preparation. The visit can be a much more valuable experience for the students, as well as for me.
- ✓ Preparing Teachers: Emphasize that teachers should lead by being present and showing interest.
- ✓ Meeting the author: Who will meet the author? When? Where? Please send me all contact information beforehand.
- ✓ Honorarium: Make sure honorarium check is made to "Sucheta Rawal" and provided during the visit.
