20/20 Show 2021 Guidelines & Requirements

Participating artists create 25 small artworks, each 8x8" - only 20 are displayed at one time. All pieces must present a collective theme when hung; however, pieces should stand alone and will be available for sale individually. This is a juried show, judged by three independent judges outside the gallery. All decisions are final. All applications will be given equal consideration. Judging criteria, based on sample submitted: creativity, originality, technique & execution, sale-ability.

IMPORTANT:

- Applicants not following entry protocol could be disqualified. LATE APPLICATIONS NOT ACCEPTED.
- All returning artists are required to produce all new artwork.
- Due to our "selling off the wall" policy (letting art go as it sells), we reserve the right to re-hang the show at any time during the show dates.

TO ENTER:

Submit a completed application form along with an original 8x8" sample in your chosen medium (on wood panel, ready for installation.) 3D artists must submit an actual sample; 4 photos of past work; and Applications due no later than 6 p.m. Friday March 5, 2021. Samples will be retained & used for photographing for Media. Multiple entries accepted with a separate submission piece and form.

DETAILS:

Theme Examples: Be Creative! A theme helps tie all the work together...

- Objects around the house • View from a window • Fruits/vegetables • Boats • Ideas from past shows • Pets/animals • Landmarks • Abstractions

Accepted Mediums: All pieces must be the same medium, no reproductions. Painted/finished EDGES!

- Painting • Mixed media • Collage • Glass • Ceramic • Metal/wire • Photography

Pricing: All work will be for sale. Panels will be sold individually. Although each artist sets their own selling price, we recommend a price between $85 and $200. All pieces must be priced the same.
