RE: Invitation to Judge at The 2020 Denver International Wine Competition

Dear Colleague,

I am writing to personally invite your participation as a judge at the 2020 Denver International Wine Competition. In its fourteenth year, this competition is quickly gaining respect as one of the top wine competitions in the southwest. Please visit the official competition website for details: www.denverwinecomp.com

The Denver International Wine Competition is open to all commercial wineries that have or plan to have distribution in the State of Colorado. Wines are tasted “double-blind” by a distinguished and diversified panel of 30 local and nationally recognized wine professionals.

We are most grateful that The Omni Interlocken Resort has graciously agreed again to be the official host's of this year's competition!
