WHO WE ARE

Crossroads is a not-for-profit counseling and education center. Established in 1998 at Martha Bowman Memorial United Methodist Church, it is affiliated with congregations in the Middle Georgia area. Believing that wholeness is possible when the mind, body, and spirit work together, our staff of professionals is committed to a holistic approach to counseling.

All of the highly-trained, licensed and experienced counselors at Crossroads Christian Counseling Center assess problems, explore solutions and provide a secure framework as you seek personal and spiritual growth in your life.

The mission of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center, Inc. is to serve all people who are affected by life's challenges through Christian-based counseling, support and education. Crossroads is open Monday through Friday. Evening appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays.

The clinical staff includes licensed marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, a clinical psychologist and adult psychiatrist.

Crossroads is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

The funds raised from the tournament will enable Crossroads to continue to meet the clients' needs and serve their families keeping its current location at 144 Pierce Avenue, replenishing the benevolent fund and assisting with the other designated ministry needs.

HONOREE

Mr. Malcolm Burgess, Jr.

Mr. Malcolm Burgess was born in North Carolina. He was adopted when he was 20 days old and Macon, Georgia became his "forever home". He attended Clisby Elementary School, Lanier High School and the University of North Carolina. He joined the army and fought in Vietnam. He was a Rifle Platoon Leader and Company Commander. In 1971, he left the army and began working with his father's company: Burgess Pigment Company. He has worked at Burgess for 48 years and currently serves as the Chairman of the Company.

He was the Chairman of the Board for Stratford Academy. Over the years, he has served on other numerous boards: Community Foundation of Central Georgia, Museum of Arts & Sciences, Wesleyan College, Mercer University, Bank of America local board, and BB&T local board.

He and his wife, Candy, have two children: Sandy and Becky and two grandchildren: Jude and Kate Burgess. In his free time, Malcolm enjoys playing golf and entertaining his grandchildren.

For many years, he has been an avid supporter of the Macon community. His passion for helping individuals and families who struggle with life's challenges is evident in all he does. Crossroads is honored to have Malcolm as the 2020 Golf Championship Honoree.
