Who We Are

Crossroads is a not-for-profit counseling and education center. Established in 1998 at Martha Bowman Memorial United Methodist Church, it is affiliated with congregations in the Middle Georgia area. Believing that wholeness is possible when the mind, body, and spirit work together, our staff of professionals is committed to a holistic approach to counseling.

All of the highly-trained, licensed and experienced counselors at Crossroads Christian Counseling Center assess problems, explore solutions and provide a secure framework as you seek personal and spiritual growth in your life.

The mission of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center, Inc. is to serve all people who are affected by life's challenges through Christian-based counseling, support and education. Crossroads is open Monday through Friday. Evening appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays.

The clinical staff includes licensed marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, a clinical psychologist and adult psychiatrist.

Crossroads is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

The funds raised from the tournament will enable Crossroads to continue to meet the clients' needs and serve their families keeping its current location at 144 Pierce Avenue, replenishing the benevolent fund and assisting with the other designated ministry needs.

Honoree for 2021

Major General Robert C. Hughes, Jr. US Army (Ret.)

Major General Robert C "Robin" Hughes Jr. hails from Albany, Georgia. He is a University of Georgia graduate, and completed a graduate degree at Fordham University. He is also a graduate of the U.S. Army War College.

MG (R) Hughes served our nation for many years maintaining concurrent military and civilian careers. He served the U.S. District Court system for over 30 years as a U.S. Probation Officer retiring as Chief, U.S. Probation Officer, MD/Ga. He served both the active and reserve components of the U.S. Army for 37 years commanding at all levels to include Georgia's Troop Command and the 48th Infantry Brigade. He retired as the Deputy Commanding General, Reserve Component, First U.S. Army, Ft. Gillem, Ga.

Following retirement, he has worked as a military consultant in Tirana, Albania, Bagdad, Iraq, and Ft. Huachuca, Az. He has also worked as management consultant teaching and developing leadership skills within government and military services at the Pentagon and within private healthcare industry. In addition, he worked as a compliance analyst for the Georgia County Municipal Probation Advisory Council.

Robin and his wife, Beth, have two children: Robert III (attorney in Savannah) and Kelly (RN in Macon).

Robin and Beth are members of Vineville United Methodist Church. He serves on the Board of Trustees, Staff Parish Committee, is a Stephens Minister, and a member of the Allen Sanders Sunday School Class. He serves on the Executive Boards of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center and Wesley Glen Ministries. Robin is past President of the National Guard Association of Georgia and currently volunteers at Daybreak homeless shelter. He enjoys playing golf, spending time with his granddaughter, and performing with the Grapevine Band!

From his extensive work and volunteer history, it is evident that Robin is dedicated to our nation, his community, and fellow man. Crossroads is blessed with the privilege to have Major General Robert C. Hughes Jr. as the 2021 Golf Tournament Honoree!
