January 11th - February 8th

Opening Reception: Friday January 17, 2020 7-9

Gala Parking

Parking is sometimes a challenge on the night of the Holiday Gala. There is a public parking lot on Mission Blvd, just north of the Olive Hyde Art Center (about 4 bldgs.), on the same side of the street. There is also parking along Mission Blvd. We have received approval to use the parking lot across from Mission Coffee, and after 5:30 pm, the Montessori School parking lot. If you have an opportunity, please say "thank you" to these businesses and do try and carpool too!

HELP!

A Volunteer is needed to receive our Members plated appetizers for the Gala on Friday, Dec.6 from 2 pm to 4 pm in the Mission Room.

If you can help, please call Jeanne Delp at 510-797-9935.

It's not too late to volunteer for the Gala. Please visit <http://olivehydeartguild.org/holiday-for-the-arts-2/holiday-show-sale-volunteers/> to sign up.

Olive Hyde Art Guild visit to Simone Archer's Studio

Simone met us in her lovely garden with a few of her handmade bird baths. She shared how she worked, rolled, designed, carved, glazed and fired each handmade clay tile artwork. For two years she designed and worked with two friends to create the charming Livermore Wine Trail wall in old downtown Livermore. She snuck in a few special details she shared with us.

Next we learned her fav tips, supplies and techniques for plain air oil painting. Once inside her light filled studio we saw her recent work from Mendocino and Yosemite, her framed oil portraits, her sculptures and her recent pieces of fused glass jewelry.

Simone is a very passionate and giving artist and we enjoyed our time with her. Afterward, we all decided to lunch at a nearby Thai restaurant.

President's Message

This is without a doubt the busiest month of the year for our many Guild Members working on this year's Holiday Show & Sale. While the Show takes place in December (6, 7 & 8), the "behind the scenes" work actually begins in January, and Guild Members work all year long to bring the spectacular event to you. Under the leadership of Judy Anglin, Nancy Ruskin, and Joan Bobrink, this year's Show will be fabulous, so mark your calendar to attend the Friday night Gala, shopping on Saturday, and shopping on Sunday – why not do all three!

If you haven't purchased your Gala tickets, please do so soon. If you aren't able to attend the Gala, give them to someone else to enjoy. I know they will thank you for it. Contact Lorrie Wong if you need more tickets. And be sure to sign up to help. Everyone's participation is needed – to set up, work the Show, sell tickets, bring food for the Gala, and clean up and put away at the conclusion.

I can't believe the Guild year is nearly half over. We are still in need of a Vice President and a President for next year. It's never too early to begin planning for the coming year. If you might be thinking about joining the Board next year but have questions, please get in touch with me. I'd love to chat.

In closing, I'd like to wish you all a very Happy Thanksgiving, a wonderful time at the 37th Holiday for the Arts Show & Sale, and a happy and safe Holiday Season. And don't forget our first artists' reception for the New Year 2020 will take place on Friday evening, January 17, 2020. Until then, Peace!

Gail Blalock, President

Holiday for the Arts 2019 Friday, December 6th 5:30-9 PM All members are reminded to bring a canape or dessert.

The following members are requested to bring enough canapés or sweets for 15 people and help prior, during and after the reception with setup, kitchen food prep or at the bar. If you cannot bring your food or help, please arrange for a substitute. If you have any questions please call Lauren Shaver 510.396.0061 or Karen Dobmeier at 510.378.9090. Thank you!
