CURRENT/UPCOMING EXHIBITS

Allusions: More Than Meets the Eye by Abstract 7

January 11th - February 8th

Opening Reception: Friday, January 17, 2020 7-9

Allusions: More Than Meets the Eye features works by the members of The Greater San Francisco Bay Area artist group, abstract7. Artists include Yao-pi Hsu, Gloria Huet, Marjorie Law, Sydell Lewis, James Ong, Donna Orme, and Terry Tsu. Working in diverse media, each artist expresses an individual vision in a unique way. Some pieces explode with energy, while others draw you into a contemplative place. All display the artists' commitment to abstraction and allude to sources of inspiration, whether it be nature, science, personal experience, or the state of world affairs.

Colors of Compassion by Bhavna Misra

February 22nd - March 21st

Opening Reception: Friday, February 28, 2020 7-9

Colors of Compassion by Bhavna Misra are the results of creative compositions of contemporary California landscapes using the traditional yet timeless oil medium. These paintings are an attempt to imitate the spectrum of indefinable range of colors that flawlessly occur in nature. The paintings are a part of the artist's ongoing series, "Local Scenes", in which she paints landscapes of the region covering valleys, mountains, deserts, and coasts. Through this sample collection, she hopes to share the natural beauty and the spectacular views of the Bay Area.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Board Positions: Vice President

Nominating Committee: Short term help to develop a slate of officers for next year; 2 or 3 volunteers needed

Garden Workers: 2 or 3 volunteers to work together to periodically care for the plants and flowers around the Gallery courtyard. (This is to augment what the City crews do.)

Gala Drawing Prize Winner

The winner of the stunning artwork by Seema Gupta at the Friday night Gala was Giang Phan, who operates The Nile Cafe in Niles. Drop by The Nile Cafe for lunch or a cup of coffee and you may see the painting on display. A huge thank-you to Seema for providing this exquisite drawing prize this year.

President's Message

Happy New Year 2020 to everyone! Thought it would never arrive, but here we are and time marches on. We ended 2019 of a very high note – the Gala and Holiday Show & Sale were absolutely amazing. So many Guild Members made it happen, beginning with our terrific trio of Judy Anglin, Joan Bobrink, and Nancy Ruskin who saw to it that everything went off without a hitch. I can't begin to list all the volunteers, donors, sponsors, shoppers, who made this a truly memorable event. Thank you all for an amazing job!

And, without so much as a relaxing breath, we are off planning our 2020 Holiday for the Arts that will take place September 25, 26, & 27, 2020. The earlier time of year should give us warmer weather, more light, and an opportunity to try some new things. Volunteers are already brainstorming and if you'd like to join in, let me know. As always, there will be plenty of volunteer opportunities for everyone.

I'm looking forward to our first artists' reception of the year on Friday night, January 17, 2020. Please note the schedule for this year (included in the newsletter) as a number of the receptions will be held the week following the exhibit opening. In a couple of cases, the artist reception will be held on a Saturday afternoon. We are trying the Saturday receptions to see if it will bring out more people, especially families. Not having to fight Friday night commute traffic or driving in the dark seems like a big plus. We'll see.

As we begin 2020, I look forward to another wonderful year of supporting the Olive Hyde Art Gallery. Won't you join me by becoming more active and taking on a role with the Guild? It can be large or small, we have jobs to fit everyone's schedule. The best part is the people you will meet and the friends you will make. Let's talk (510/490-7565)!

Gail Blalock, President

The following members are requested to bring enough canapés or sweets for 15 people and help prior, during and after the reception with setup, kitchen food prep or at the bar. If you cannot bring your food or help, please arrange for a substitute. If you have any questions please call Lauren Shaver 510.396.0061 or Karen Dobmeier at 510.378.9090. Thank you!
