Olive Hyde Art Guild – 2020 Holiday Show, September 25, 26, 27

Update to the Olive Hyde Art Guild's announcement regarding fall Holiday show. September 25, 26, & 27

As of today, the show is still scheduled to take place the end of September. However, the guild continues to monitor the CDC guidelines regarding the Covid-19 and the City of Fremont policy. We will keep artists informed of any changes in dates. We are still accepting applications for the show and look forward to hearing from you as to your interest in participating this year. You may go to our website: www.olivehydeartguild.org/Holiday for the Holiday for the Arts menu to locate the applications, or send a message. We are also interested in hearing from new artists. Updates about the July screening of new work will be sent when we have more information. Thank you for your patience and understanding with this unusual situation.

President's Message

By now you should have all received a letter from me updating you on the Guild during the current shelter-in-place. If you didn't receive a letter, please let me know. With so many unknowns as to the future, it seemed the best way for the Guild to proceed was in a "holding" pattern, and that is why the Board acted to automatically renew all Guild Memberships for the coming year. While we are all hopeful that life will soon be back to some sense of normal, we know things will never be exactly the same as before. We will all need to adjust to a new normal, but with the many talents of our membership, I am confident the future of the Guild will be nothing short of amazing. An example of the future is the incredible job Dina Rubiolo has done on our "virtual" Scholarship Program this year. Life will be different, but it will still be gratifying.

In the meantime, stay safe, happy, and well!

Gail Blalock, Guild President

Olive Hyde Board Highlights

The Board is continuing to give a donation this year to Abode for art supplies and the Library for art books for children.

The Board voted to automatically renew every current membership for next year at no cost to members.

Next month the decision will be made to continue, push back or cancel the Holiday Show and Sale.
