Every year FabMo rescues approximately 70 tons of discontinued designer samples such as fabric, wallpaper, tile, and carpet and makes them available to the creative community for reuse.

Goods are available at monthly Selection Events and Sales at our facility in Sunnyvale, and periodically at satellite events in Santa Cruz and elsewhere. In addition, we host meet-ups and workshops, where you can learn new skills and meet like-minded creators.

You will also find us out in the community promoting creative reuse at events such as Earth Day, the San Mateo County Fair, Maker Faire, and more.

President's Message

I hope this finds you safe, healthy, and finding new and stimulating ways to pass the days as we hope and pray for an end to this pandemic. I know that several Guild Members have been busy planning for the September debut of the “Project Mini-Art” online sale and many more have been creating artwork on the 5x5 canvases for the sale. This major effort is led by Judy Anglin and Denise Oyama Miller along with Nancy Ruskin, Lisa Stambaugh, Kay Hille-Hatten, and Joan Bobrink. I can't begin to thank them for pursuing this project that will take place when, under normal circumstances, we would be holding our annual Holiday Show & Sale. I can't wait to see the artwork!

We are into a new fiscal year for the Guild, and while it seems so much of the world is in a holding pattern, the work of the Guild marches on. The Board continues its monthly meetings using “Zoom”, and it's a fun way to stay connected. “The Arts Are Alive – And Still Going Strong” shouts a banner we have been working on to place on the outside of the Mission Room building – to let passersby know the Guild is still going strong! Thanks to our Treasurer Kate Mills, the Guild now has an account at Home Depot that enables students approved for the BoxArt program to purchase the supplies they need to paint their assigned box. I hope, for our next newsletter, to have more information to share on the locations of these boxes. The newsletter continues thanks to our Editor Karen Dobmeier. And, while we won't be printing a new Roster this year, Membership Chair Lorrie Wong continues to maintain our membership list, so if there are any changes to your address, phone number, or email address, please email the information to membership@olivehydeartguild.org or mail to OHAG, P.O. Box 3073, Fremont, CA 94539.

As I've said before, we find ourselves in the midst of unprecedented circumstances that never could have been predicted, and your encouragement and support are greatly appreciated. I am so looking forward to the time when we may again share a glass of wine in the Olive Hyde courtyard. Until next month, be safe and wear your mask!

Gail Blalock, Guild President
