The Abingdon Preaching Annual 2008 Edition

edited by David N. Mosser

Preachers have long turned to The Abingdon Preaching Annual for help with a central task of their ministry—sermon preparation. This 2008 edition continues this tradition and adds new valuable features and content:

- Sermons

Lectionary-based sermons for each Sunday and special liturgical event of the year—

a total of 23 new topical sermon series on diverse themes such as The Nature of Sin, Family Life, War & Peace, Prayer, Emotional Health, and many more.

- Worship Planning Aids

A four-year liturgical event calendar, a guide to liturgical colors, and 2008 lectionary readings in one easy-to-use table. Related worship aids are conveniently paired with each lectionary sermon.

- Searchable CD-ROM

Included with every book! The full text of the print edition with a searchable table of contents, plus hyperlinked helps to additional sermon illustrations, an annotated bibliography, and full text of each lectionary passage.

The Abingdon Worship Annual 2008 Edition

edited by Mary Scifres and Brian Beu

Fresh worship planning resources in both contemporary and traditional styles for pastors and other worship leaders. Using a Theme Idea based on the lectionary readings, each week's offering of prayers and litanies follows the Basic Pattern of Christian Worship:

- Gathering and Praise
- Proclamation and Response
- Thanksgiving and Communion
- Sending Forth

Alternative ideas for Praise Sentences and Contemporary Gathering Words are offered for those who work in contemporary worship settings. And, in response to requests, we have included a number of Communion liturgies as well.

This is a must-have sourcebook, providing assistance to pastors and worship planners who regularly write calls to worship, invocations, prayers, and benedictions for a meaningful worship experience.
