The Daily Grind

Family Life + Married Life + Work Life + Ministry Life + Social Life = Exhausted Life! If we aren't careful, the Daily Grind can eventually crush us and leave us crumpled on the ground, waving the proverbial white flag and begging, "I need a vacation!"

My last real vacation was more than two years ago. I was ordained just six months prior, and the whirlwind of that new role in my life really was exhausting; and at that point I had very little left to give. So my mission on that five-day vacation was to 1) Detach from the World; 2) Clear my mind of stress and anxieties; and 3) Sleep! I did that, and it was the best vacation ever. I returned to life invigorated and refreshed -- ready to tackle the world!

Although I have not had another luxurious vacation since, I am not running-on-empty as I did that first year. I am still put through the grind of life, and I am still often physically exhausted, but I learned something soon after that vacation. I realized that my three-point vacation mission could be accomplished simply through sincere prayer.

What is prayer, if not detaching ourselves from the world and it's worldly clutches? What is prayer, if not clearing our minds of negativity? What is prayer, if not resting in the peace of Christ? And what is prayer, if not returning to life changed for the better?

Today, Jesus invites us to come to him now and always. We come to him so that we may never be at the point of being crushed and crumpled on the ground. With Jesus at our side, he helps us through the grind of life, no matter how hard and seemingly defeating it might be. In faith and through prayer, united with him side by side, we are assured that Jesus will give us rest and peace; our lives changed for the better, refreshed and invigorated!

ANNIVERSARY OF CATHOLICISM IN HAWAII

Sunday, July 9, 2017, the feast day of Our Lady, Queen of Peace, principal patroness of the Diocese of Honolulu, marks the 190th anniversary of the arrival of the first Catholic missionaries in Hawaii, who were members of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Daily Prayer

Jesus calls us to join Him

As Jesus heals, he gives courage. As he carries out his ministry of healing and announcing the good news of the closeness of the Kingdom of God, he is filled with compassion for all who suffer and need this encouraging news. So Jesus calls us to join him. This isn't the call to priesthood or religious life. This is the universal call addressed to all of us to see with the same compassionate eyes of Jesus and to reach out and heal others. As Jesus sends us, he knows that we will encounter resistance and opposition. He tells us not to be afraid. Even when things happen that take away our peace, our peace will be given back to us. He knows he is sending us like sheep among the wolves of this world, and so he asks us to be both wise and simple - two great gifts for our mission. He assures us that even when we don't know how to speak tender or reconciling words, the Spirit will speak through us.

What a great week to ask for the grace to be responsive to his call! All week, with attentive eyes, we can see with Jesus' own compassion, where he is directing our heart to love and to heal. Each day, following our pattern of focusing throughout the day in brief moments of conversation and connection with the Lord, we can consciously recognize the "calls" the Lord has given us and is offering us. And we can acknowledge them, accept them, embrace them.

Of course, our primary relationships are all the ways we live our discipleship call. So often though, these relationships are where we need the greatest courage to be tender, compassionate and courageous in loving, in letting the Spirit speak through us. Let's ask ourselves all week: how can I bring healing and peace to each important relationship in my life?

And, where I'm afraid, or resistant, or even where I've given up, that can be the place of the deepest and most important prayer of the week. It certainly can be the place we come to Jesus to be refreshed.

St. Augustine Gala Aug. 24

Plans are in full swing for our annual Ho'ohali'a (A Fond Reflection) Gala – Thursday, August 24 at the Monarch Room of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. This annual event commemorates the feast day of our patron, St. Augustine, as well as the many blessings we have received as a parish in our 163 years of dedicated service and witness of faith in Waikīkī. Proceeds will support the building of a NEW Damien and Marianne Museum! Join us at this year's Gala and help create this new legacy! Watch the weekly bulletin for more Gala details!

Malo aupito

Thank you to the Tongan Lataki for planning, preparing, cooking, and clean up for our Parish Picnic on July 4.

Everyone enjoyed themselves. Thank you for sharing that great Spirit of St. Augustine. Blessings always.

Weekly Scripture discussions

Our weekly Thursday evening Scripture Reflection continues at 6 p.m. in the Annex Building. All lectors – and anyone interested in deepening their knowledge of Scripture – are encouraged to attend weekly. Lectors scheduled to read that Sunday are expected to attend. Please bring a Bible, lector workbook or printout of the readings.

Cardinal Mafi to visit July 16

Cardinal Soane Patita Paini Mafi of Tonga will visit our parish on July 16 and will preside at the 5 p.m. Mass.

Come and welcome him to our parish.

The cardinal fell ill in April and could not travel to Hawai'i for the special event held by the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts to raise funds for our seminarians in Fiji.

Baptism, Confirmation and Then First Communion

Reflections on the Original Order

Questions? kdeneve@rcchawaii.org

The sacraments that initiate us into the Christian life are Baptism and Confirmation. Baptism and Confirmation go hand in hand, like a certificate given its official seal. In Baptism, Christians share in the death and resurrection of Jesus. In Confirmation, the Holy Spirit comes down upon us as it did on the Apostles on the day of Pentecost. Baptism and Confirmation are as inseparable as Easter and Pentecost Sundays, the first and last days of the Easter season.

Jesus himself was baptized and then confirmed by his Father with the gift of the Spirit: "After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and, behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased'" (Matthew 3:16-17).

In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the sacraments are received in the proper theological order, usually at the Easter vigil — Baptism, Confirmation, and then first Holy Communion. This takes place for anyone 7 years of age and older. Soon, our children baptized as infants will also be confirmed prior to First Communion.

Lay minister meetings

There will be a meeting for all lectors at 5:30 p.m. Monday, July 10, in the church and all Eucharistic ministers Monday, July 17, at 5:30 p.m. in the church. New prospects for these ministries are welcome.

Devotional candles

With the recommendation of the Catholic Mutual Group, our insurance carrier, we have decided to purchase two devotional candle stands with real candles.

The candle stands should be arriving soon.

New altar candles

It's becoming more of a challenge to keep our liquid altar candles lit during Mass because the air conditioning extinguishes them. Therefore, Fr. Lane is considering purchasing four new altar candle stands. These candle stands can be a wonderful way to remember loved ones.

If an individual or family is interested in donating toward the purchase of these altar candle stands, please contact Fr. Lane. These candle stands can be donated in memory of loved ones. The price is $1,200 per candle stand. Mahalo.
