

MARY BROADWAY

A photograph of Mary Broadway, a woman who was a local laundress in Stratford. Mary was a convert to Catholicism and was asked by Father Francis of St. Francis Church, to prepare the bodies of our four Sisters for burial. She washed their habits and chords as well. Later, she became a Franciscan Sister with the Convent of the Poor Clares in Woodchester.

(Image from Sean Street's Book)