Opening Song:

The Summons – J. Bell

1. Will you come and follow me If I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know And never be the same? Will you let my love be shown?

2. Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind And never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare Should your life at this unseen, And admit to what I

3. Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name? Will you set the prisoners free And never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean And do such as use the faith you've found To reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and

4. Will you love the 'you' you hide If I but call your name? Will you quell the fear in side And never be the same? Will you name be known, Will you let my life be tract or scare? Will you let me answer grown In you and you in me?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true When you but call my name. Let me turn and follow. Let me turn and follow. In your know And never be the same? Will you let my love be shown? Where your love and

Glory to God:

Mass of Joy – K. Demny

REFRAIN

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to peoples of good will.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to peoples of good will.

VERSE 1

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,

1. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

VERSE 2

2. Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God,

VERSE 3

3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

3. you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

3. in the glory of God the Father. Amen, amen.

First Reading: Ephesians 3:7-8, 12, 16-20

I was made a servant of the gospel by God’s special gift, which was given to me through the working of the power of God.

I am less than the least of all God’s people; yet God gave me this privilege of taking to the Gentiles the Good News about the infinite riches of Christ.

In union with Christ and through our faith in him we have the boldness to go into God’s presence with all confidence.

I ask God from the wealth of God’s own glory to give you power through his Spirit to be strong in your inner selves, and I pray that Christ will make his home in your hearts through faith. I pray that you may have your roots and foundation in love, so that you, together with all God’s people, may have the power to understand how broad and long, how high and deep, is Christ’s love.

Yes, may you come to know God’s love - although it can never be fully known - and so be completely filled with the very nature of God.

To him whose power working in us is able to do so much more than we can ever ask for, or even think of: to God be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus for all time, forever and ever! Amen.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 89 – T. Schoenbachler

For ev-er I will sing the good-ness of the Lord.
Second Reading:  St. Clare’s 3rd Letter to Agnes of Prague

Place your mind before the mirror of eternity!
Place your soul in the brilliance of glory!
Place your heart in the figure of the divine substance and, through contemplation, transform your entire being into the image of the Godhead Itself, so that you too may feel what friends feel in tasting the hidden sweetness that, from the beginning, God Himself has reserved for His lovers.

And, after all who ensnare their blind lovers in a deceitful and turbulent world have been completely passed over, may you totally love Him who gave Himself totally for your love.

Gospel Acclamation:
K. Demny

Gospel:  John 15:9-17

I love you just as the Father loves me; remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My commandment is this: love one another, just as I love you. The greatest love you can have for your friends is to give your life for them. And you are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because servants do not know what their master is doing. Instead, I call you friends, because I have told you everything I heard from my Father. You did not choose me; I chose you and appointed you to go and bear much fruit, the kind of fruit that endures. And so the Father will give you whatever you ask of him in my name. This, then, is what I command you: love one another.

Reflection:  Sr. Fran Glowinski
Renewal of Vows and Covenant Commitment

Sister Melanie Paradis:

Mindful of the great gift God has bestowed upon each of you in your call to baptism and religious profession, we are also mindful that this gift has been faithfully and generously lived in communion with the Church and in service to God’s people. In gratitude for this great gift, and in the presence of all of us gathered here in this chapel and our Livestream community, I invite each of you to renew your commitment to God, and the people of God.

Sister Jubilarians:

Trusting in the grace which the Lord has given me to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for the glory of God, I, N..., in the presence of the Church gathered here, renew my vow to God almighty to live in obedience, poverty and chastity according to the Rule of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis and the constitutions of our Congregation of Franciscan Sisters, Daughters of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Inspired by Mother Clara, I give myself to this Congregation with my whole heart. I pray that through the work of the Holy Spirit, the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, St. Francis, St. Clare and all the saints, with the help of my community, I may fulfill my dedication in the service of God and the Church.

Covenant Companions:

Trusting in the grace which the Lord has given me, I, N..., in the presence of the Church gathered here, Renew my covenant with the Wheaton Franciscan Sisters. Inspired by St. Francis, St. Clare and Mother Clara, I pray that I may faithfully live as a Covenant Companion in this Community.
Sister Melanie Paradis:

In the name of our Sisters, Covenant Companions, and all gathered here, I joyfully receive this renewal of your vows and commitment. With deep gratitude, I praise God for the gift of your faithful following in the footsteps of Jesus, St. Francis, St. Clare and Mother Clara Pfaender. In the words of St. Clare,

What you hold, may you hold,
What you do, may you do and not stop.
But swift pace, light step, unswerving feet,
so that even your steps stir up no dust,
may you go forward secure, joyfully and swiftly,
on the path of prudent happiness,
believing nothing, agreeing with nothing that would dissuade you from this commitment or would place a stumbling block for you on the way,
so that nothing prevents you from offering your vows to the Most High in the perfection to which the Spirit of the Lord has called you.

Anointing

ALL:

We praise and thank you, O God,
for the gift of these Sisters and Covenant Companions,
and for the witness of love they are in our lives.
May you, O God, who have begun this good work in them,
bring it to fullness in Christ Jesus. Amen.
