

- House System
  - Father Beretta's idea
  - started at the end of last year
  - eight total houses
    - eight houses in One House of Sales
    - named after important people in Salesianum history
      - Birkenhauer
      - Fromentin
      - Haley-Carpenter
      - Kenney
      - Lawless
      - Quintus
      - Rosaio
      - Tucker
  - fully started at the beginning of this year
  - Homerooms separated by house
    - all four classes in homeroom (about five students from each class)
  - competitions (pep rallies) between eight houses
    - earn points for "house cup" at end of the year
      - similar to Harry Potter and Hogwarts
  - main goal is to have everyone meet more people, specifically the leadership of the seniors to the freshmen
  - everything organized by house
  - each house has their own service project
- New Christian Service Requirements
  - as before, a requirement to pass on to the next class, or for seniors, graduate
  - Everyone is required to do a minimum of 25 hours per year, 10 of which are outside of school
  - Reflection paper used for a numerical religion grade, rather than a pass/fail for Christian Service
  - each house has their own service project
- New Schedule coordinated with Padua/Ursuline to allow more exchange classes
  - exchange period: first period A-F Day for Salesianum, Day 1-Day 6 for Padua
    - G-Day for Salesianum, and Day 7 for Padua, class does not meet
  - Padua specifically changed their schedule to follow Salesianum more closely
  - eliminates G-day/Day 6 conflicts to allow more days class meets in a cycle
  - dismissal time adjusted for assembly days
  - example: Italian now offered again first period at Padua for Salesianum students
