The Mozel Sanders Foundation Gears Up To Feed Seniors

Indianapolis IN, December 11, 2019: In addition to feeding over 20,000 individuals on Thanksgiving Day, The Mozel Sanders Foundation, Inc. in conjunction with the Lilly Endowment will be feeding 200 qualified seniors in the Indianapolis area for the Christmas holiday. We invite the press to join us at our base headquarters, Mt. Vernon Community Baptist Church, 709 N. Belmont Ave, Indianapolis IN 46222, tomorrow (Thursday, December 12th, 2019) from 11:30am – 1pm as we prepare the baskets to be delivered to our seniors later that day.

Stephanie Sanders, President and outgoing CEO of the organization, shares "We are again humbled and thankful to the many Hoosiers that contributed to make this possible. We have been working with The Lilly Endowment for the last 3 years with this project, but when the demand for Thanksgiving Day dinners declined this year, we saw this an opportunity to bless more seniors at Christmas." Qualified seniors receive $50 food baskets that will be delivered on Thursday, December 12, 2019. The senior homes have already been chosen for the dinner basket distribution.

Ms. Sanders is the daughter-in-law of Founder the Late Rev. Mozel Sanders and the widow of the Late Rev. Roosevelt Sanders, Sr. and has been the President and CEO since Rev. Roosevelt's passing in 2010. Her youngest son, Stephen Mozel James Sanders, has been tapped as the incoming CEO beginning January 2020.

"Seniors end up spending their money on giving to their family and after the 25th of December, they still have a week to go before their next Social Security check and oftentimes don't have food for that time. For the last three years, in partnership with the Lilly Endowment, we have given 100 seniors $50 food baskets to get them through the Christmas season. This year, we are expanding to feed at least 200 seniors," explains Stephanie Sanders.
