The Mozel Sanders Foundation To Feed The National Guard Volunteers Tomorrow

Indianapolis IN, April 22, 2020: The Mozel Sanders Foundation, Inc. as part of its partnership with the Midwest Food Bank will be feeding the National Guard Volunteers Thursday, April 22, 2020. We invite the press to join us at the Midwest Food Bank at 6450 S Belmont Ave, Indianapolis, IN 46217, at 10:30 am.

Stephanie Sanders, Executive Director and Past President/CEO of the organization, shares "As part of our partnership with the Midwest Food Bank, we commit to serving lunch once a year to the volunteers at the Midwest Food Bank. Tomorrow we are honored to serve our military brothers and sisters for the jobs that they do." Michael's Soul Kitchen, 115 E Ohio St, Indianapolis, IN 46204, is our food preparation partner.

"During this unique time of sacrifice across all walks of life, we are also grateful for our partners at Tom Roush Auto Group and Mufflers and More, both of Noblesville IN. They are assisting us with keeping our van in running order so that we can get to the people in need," shared President/CEO Stephen James Mozel Sanders.

Ms. Sanders is the daughter-in-law of Founder the Late Rev. Mozel Sanders and the widow of the Late Rev. Roosevelt Sanders, Sr. and had been the President and CEO since Rev. Roosevelt's passing in 2010. Her youngest son, Stephen Mozel James Sanders, is now the current President and CEO.
