Rev. Roosevelt Sanders Scholarship to Honor Essential Workers This Year

Nominations being accepted now through November 20, 2020.

Indianapolis IN,: Celebrating its 49th year, The Mozel Sanders Foundation has opened up to receive nominations for the Rev. Roosevelt Sanders Scholarship. This year, in honor of the sacrifices made by those in health care, civil servantry, food service, and others, our scholarship will be award to essential workers.

"We felt it necessary to celebrate those on the front line and let them know that their sacrifice matters," shares Stephen Mozel James Sanders, CEO of Mozel Sanders Foundation. "While we would love to honor everyone because the risk is so great, we hope the help we can provide will be well received."

Mozel Sanders Foundation has been giving scholarships away for the past 10 years. The Rev. Roosevelt Scholarship was established after the passing of Rev. Roosevelt Sanders to help children and adults. "We are grateful for our partnership with Financial Center First Credit Union who funds the scholarships for us each year," states Stephanie Sanders, Executive Director for Mozel Sanders.

To nominate someone, go to MozelSanders.org and click on 'SCHOLARSHIP' to nominate someone for the Essential Worker Scholarship.
