Maryland State Senator Cheryl C. Kagan Named MML “Super Star”

The Maryland Municipal League (MML) honored Senator Cheryl Kagan (D-17) last night for the second time for her effective leadership on issues affecting Maryland’s cities and towns during the 2016 legislative session.

Kagan is one of just seven Senators and Delegates to be recognized as a “Super Star” for her work on behalf of municipalities.

Presented by President Spencer Schlosnagle, the awards are given to legislators who go above and beyond. According to an MML representative, “these legislators work tirelessly to advocate for legislation with impact on municipal government and help protect our cities and towns from harmful legislation.”

“I am honored to be recognized for my work again this session,” Kagan said. “Maryland’s 157 cities and towns are the backbone of our State. I am proud to represent two of our largest and most effective municipalities – Gaithersburg and Rockville -- which offer services and programming that make my legislative district a terrific place to live, work, and raise a family.”
