

Entire Aussie Town Vanishes

By Todd Geckie

They say everything Down Under is out to kill you. But nobody knows, how an entire town's worth of people, simply vanished one morning, in outback Australia.

Tommin's Peak was a typical small town in rural NSW. Population: 581. It was understood to be a hard working, and Christian town, where crime was virtually unheard of.

So it was when police from neighbouring Mt Elizabeth, went to arrest one of the few local criminals, they discovered the town deserted.

"It was very strange." Commented local law enforcement, in the person of Sergeant Thommo McGrath.

"It was as though everyone just had breakfast, and then vanished."

Investigating police are completely mystified. Scientific tests on the area haven't shed any light either.

"Tommin's Peak was a very devout town with full church attendance, as I understand it." said Theologian, Dr Timothy Weissappel. "A few Christian commentators are questioning whether this is a sign of The End Times. That this was, in fact, the beginning of the Rapture."

According to the Word of God:

First Thessalonians 4:17 "Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words."

Perhaps we all, as servants of Our Lord Jesus Christ, should take heart from events in Tommin's Peak.

Peace be upon you.
