

Spring 2015

Dana Point | Cactus

Dana Point

Dana Point provides another texture in the Place collection – this time with a slightly over-scaled pattern that zigzags across the surface of the fabric in a fresh approach to the classic chevron. Named for a gorgeous spot on the southern California coast, Dana Point has just a hint of luster – providing a subtle shimmer to the otherwise sedate fabric. The color palette is as soft as the fabric itself with color names like Rain and Petal and Husk. However – color Lava, in the lustrous black of a live lava flow, was included to add a touch of drama to Dana Point.

Technical Specifications:

|           |                                 |
|-----------|---------------------------------|
| Price:    | $96 net                        |
| Content:  | 66% Viscose, 34% Cotton         |
| Repeat:   | .75" horizontal; .75" vertical  |
| Colors:   | 6                               |
| Abrasion: | Exceeds 30,000 cycles Wyzenbeek |
| Width:    | 54"                             |
| Finish:   | none                            |

|          |           |
|----------|-----------|
| Brussels | 147-01-01 |
| Husk     | 147-05-02 |
| Petal    | 147-32-03 |
| Rain     | 147-60-04 |
| Cactus   | 147-65-05 |
| Lava     | 147-35-06 |