

Providing our customers with post-harvest peace of mind since 2004

Chemical

GroupAg has pioneered and refined low-temperature, high-pressure application methodologies to provide the most efficient and effective treatment possible for each type of chemical applied. The GroupAg chemical team currently holds application licenses for Idaho, Washington, Oregon, & Nevada and relies on the following chemical suppliers & products:

A GroupAg proprietary application method for storage crop sanitizer & disinfectant treatments

Sanitizer & disinfectant for fresh pack facilities, including GroupAg custom built in-line conveyor application systems

Leading supplier of innovative dormancy & sprout control products for year-round potato storage

Pioneers of high-quality postharvest protection products

Manufacturer of biodegradable crop protection, sanitation and water treatment products

Mechanical

The GroupAg mechanical team is licensed and experienced to provide high-quality services for storage HVAC, electrical, & engineering and design. GroupAg relies on the following mechanical suppliers & products:

Manufacturer and supplier of ventilation system controls and components

Manufacturer of quality engineered cooling solutions

A line of cost effective, low maintenance solutions for humidity and cooling needs

Evaporative cooling product supplier for h-cell media and light-block, including Munters® & Kuul®

