

Yellow Group Vocabulary

distrustful	unable or unwilling to place confidence in uncomplicated	not complex or intricate domain	area of influence, activity or knowledge amid	in or among; surrounded by beckon	summon someone with a gesture unkempt	dirty, disorderly or untidy forage	to search for extensively or deeply applaud	to clap hands or to show approval migrate	travel to a new location seasonally awaken	to stop sleeping murmur	words or sounds spoken softly canvas	surface of stiff fabric for a painting linger	loiter, hang around, delay, hesitate, remain isolated	placed apart or alone professional	well trained and good at job

Spelling: Suffix -ful

resourceful	distasteful disgraceful	successful delightful	disrespectful mouthful	neglectful

Purple Group Vocabulary

migrate	travel to a new location seasonally
parasites	organisms that leech off of another organism patient	able to face delays or problems without complaint weave	to interlace long threads to form fabric domain	territory or land controlled habitat	place where an animal or plant normally lives merchants	people who sell goods, shopkeepers freeway	express highway accomplished	brought to successful finish
forage	to search for extensively or deeply scurry	run or move hurriedly uninvited	not welcome or wanted; unasked to attend

Spelling: Suffix -ful

plentiful	boastful
frightful	stressful
beautiful	flavorful
respectful	successful

Blue Group Vocabulary

control	to keep within limits carton	a container made of cardboard runt	the smallest or weakest animal in a litter approach	to move closer to something or someone demand	to insist on having foolish	lacking good sense or judgment infant	baby or child in the first years of life blissful	extremely happy or joyful snout	a protruding nose and mouth of an animal carriage	vehicle with wheels that is pushed or pulled

Spelling: Suffix -ly

angrily	highly correctly	carefully
bravely	