What's Going On...

Week of May 10th - 14th

ABC Countdown:

I have this week's days listed under important dates. Tuesday the kids may wear a hat. They will still need to be in regular school uniform.

May Day is not a national holiday in the USA, however, Hawaii celebrates May 1st as Lei Day. They exchange flower necklaces for good luck

I can't believe that we are down to the last month of school. We will be working hard this week and next week so that we can enjoy the last two weeks of school completing fun projects.

Grade cards will go home on the last day of school. I will need for all IXL and unfinished work to be completed by the 24th of May so I can get all of the grades into Skyward.

Next week will be doing minute to win it games for our ABC countdown. I will send out a remind for some items if you would like to donate.

I learn:

We will be finished with I-learn this week. Please try to have your child at school each day the rest of this week. We have the ELA testing with the 4th graders on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Make sure to eat a good breakfast and be well rested on those days.

Spelling:

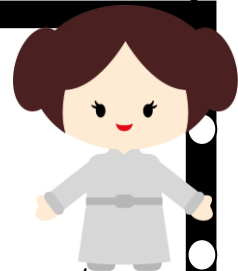

We will be having list 23 spelling and vocabulary test on Friday. Next week will be list 24. That will be our last spelling list of the school year.

Social/Emotional Learning

LIM: We will be reviewing all 7 habits Ponder?: What could I do this week to help stay on task and get all of my work finished.
