Dear Friends,

At Clothes To Kids of Denver, 2020 was a year full of uncertainty, but also some unexpected silver linings!

When the COVID-19 pandemic forced our store to close in March, CTKD’s services were in especially high demand. Working remotely, our wonderful staff implemented Clothes To Kids Curbside, providing safe, contactless delivery to families in need while still allowing students to be as selective as if shopping in person. Working from Curbside Service request forms that provided ages and clothing item sizes, along with color and style preferences, staff and volunteers shopped on the students’ behalf, then packaged the clothing for pick-up in our store’s parking lot. The new program allowed us to reach more families than ever before and proved so popular that we’re continuing to offer it, right along with in-store shopping.

In April and May, nearly all of the families we served were first-timers at CTKD, a testament to just how devastating the pandemic was on an economic level.

By summer, the store reopened at limited capacity, with half our staff working remotely and most of our volunteers wisely sheltering in place. That’s when our amazing youth volunteers stepped up to the plate, and we truly could not have succeeded without them. We are forever grateful for the gift they gave us during a very difficult time.

Throughout the year, we continued to attract new volunteers, supporters and partnerships, and we look forward to building on these new friendships. During the summer we also were able to completely remodel the backroom sorting area. We removed the dropped ceiling, and our dear friends at RK Foundation brightened the area with their donation and installation of beautiful new lighting. Old shelving was replaced with new hanging rods designed for increased efficiency. The functionality of the backroom has been a game-changer for our volunteers and staff.

We are so grateful to YOU, our incredible CTKD family, for your unwavering support and love for our mission! 2020 has been full of unimaginable challenges, but you have continued to sustain and encourage us, even while dealing with your own uncertainties. THANK YOU — and here’s to silver linings!

With gratitude and love,

Valene Lukans
Executive Director
