Dear Brother or Invited Guest,

I am pleased to announce Nevada Grand Lodge will conduct our 156th Annual Communication at the Orleans Resort Hotel in Las Vegas November 6th through 10th, 2020 and guests are welcome.

Furthermore, all Master Masons in the State of Nevada and their guests are cordially invited to all social activities including my Grand Master's Black Tie banquet on Sunday, November 8th. Brother Masters and Secretaries, you are to read the entirety of this invitation at your next stated communication and to do your best to ensure all your Lodge Master Masons are aware they are explicitly invited by their Grand Master.

Although all are welcome, we strongly encourage anyone who is at high risk or who lives with those at high risk not to attend. Ballots for our elected officers have been distributed in advance for those holding votes so that you may have your vote recorded in the event you wish not to attend.

The Orleans has arranged to accommodate all current local safety guidelines allowing us to have a modified version of our full communication. Properly worn face masks and social distancing will be required at all events. Everyone MUST register in advance so we may plan for proper social distancing and room limits. Walk-ins will not be possible for your safety. Thank you for your understanding.

I look forward to seeing my friends who can attend before I leave the Grand East. Thank you all for your support through a very trying year.

Fraternally,
