

Some things that come with working with Karie and her planning team:

On your day of, we are the first ones to show up and the last to leave.

No matter what package you go with you will be guaranteed to have these things happen and more.

- A timeline is made for your specific day
- We come to your rehearsal
- We will make sure that all the logistics are worked out. (Rental items and décor, etc.)
- We will see that all of your décor is set up correctly; we will be there to answer questions, fix issues, direct vendors and make sure that you are enjoying your day without worry.
- We are there to get you down the aisle and to your reception with a Grand entrance. Toasts, cake cutting and first dances happen on time and that we are keeping the guests and vendors well taken care of.
- We make sure that you have a drink in your hand and a smile on your face the whole night!
- We are there to oversee or clean up and make sure that the venue is left as the contract says it should be.
- We delivery the most successful send offs and make sure that all of your items are placed in the proper get away cars.
- We ensure that Family, Friends, Venue, Bridal Party and you are impressed and see the value in what we do!!

We love weddings and we are in our element every time we get to work at one! You will know that when you meet us! We hope we get a chance to meet you!

Every wedding is individualized and have so many different elements. Rarely are there two weddings the same. We love creating packages that are individualized. So keep that in mind. We can do it all!

Day of Coordination package

On your day of it is important that you have someone directing people where to go and answering questions of vendors and bridal party.

It is important to have someone who knows your vision and will set up your ceremony and reception for you just the way that you want it.

It is important to have someone to

- clean the red one or dirt off your dress,
- bustle your dress if no one knows how
- Pin the corsages on groomsmen and family.
- Have fabric glue and knows how to sew a grooms or groomsmen's pants when the crotch rips out, because boys will be boys.
- Someone to go get you more cups, beer, anything that you need in a pinch
- Someone who has zip ties, bobby pins, safety pins, super glue
- Someone to Q the dj as to when you walk down the aisle, have your grand entrance
- Talk with caterers if we need to push out or move up dinner a little
- Someone to show you how to stand when cutting a cake with another person
- Someone to bring you a drink when you sit down for dinner
- Someone to gently keep you on track and help traditions be a success so you have time for dancing.
- Someone to hand out bubbles, streamers, sparklers, light them Q you and photographer and make your exit a memorable one.
- Someone to watch your card box and take the cards out and hide them for you in a special place
- Someone to notice when your caterer, or dessert person or dj do not show up on time to call and see what is going on.
- Someone to box up some dessert for you so that you get to actually enjoy your own dessert you chose on the night of your wedding.
- Someone to direct the cleanup and make sure that everything that was brought to your wedding goes home with someone important and you know the designated people to work with.
- For example, Guest book, Gifts, Cards, Flowers, Alcohol, Decoration, leftover dessert and food.

We are confident that if it is broke, we can fix it! We have had so many times that we have said, "What if they didn't have a coordinator"

I love that we have the ability to keep our eye out and are seeing everything that is happening and ensuring that it goes smoothly!!

Weddings are not cheap and you will feel so at ease knowing that everything you have planned, envisioned and paid for is coming to life!!

This amazing day is a celebration of you and the one you have chosen to be with forever!!

Let us take on all of the stress and crazy stuff!! You, your family, bridal party and friends celebrate you and your spouse!!! We can not wait to watch it all happen!!!
