1 INT. - GAME SHOW SET. - DAY 1

BLACK AND WHITE FOOTAGE FROM 1978

MUSIC UP:
A simple GAME SHOW SET -- one long desk--that houses four "CELEBRITY PANELISTS," a small pulpit with attached microphone for the host, BUD COLLYER, who walks through the curtain to the delight of the audience. Bud bows and waves to the celebrities -- ORSON BEAN, KITTY CARLISLE, TOM POSTON, and PEGGY CASS.

BUD COLLYER
Hello, panel, and welcome everyone to another exciting day on "To Tell The Truth." Let's get the show started.

THE CURTAIN STARTS TO RISE
BRIGHT LIGHTS SHINE on the faces of THREE MEN who walk toward center stage. All three wear identical AIRLINE PILOT UNIFORMS, each with medium blue blazers and caps. (cont'd)

Gentleman, please state your names.

THE PILOT IN THE MIDDLE steps forward.

(READING)

From 1964 to 1966 I successfully impersonated an airline pilot for Pan Am Airlines, and flew over two million miles for free. During that time I was also the Chief Resident Pediatrician at a Georgia hospital, the Assistant Attorney General for the state of Louisiana, and a Professor of American History at a prestigious University in France. By the time I was caught and sentenced to prison, I had cashed over six million dollars in fraudulent checks in 26 foreign countries and all fifty states, and I did it all before my 18th birthday. To this day, I am the only teenager ever to have been placed on the FBI's most wanted list. My name is Abagnale Jr.

Warm applause as the THREE MEN walk behind a desk that faces the panel. They all sit down at exactly the same time.

BUD COLLY (cont'd)

Okay, panel, you have ork cut out for you. Kitty Carl, you have the first question.

KITTY CARLISLE
Imposter number one, how many years were you in prison?

PILOT #1
I served two years in France, and five years in Atlanta, Georgia.

KITTY CARLISLE
Imposter number two, I find all this very fascinating. Who was it that finally caught you?
