DR. HORRIBLE

Ah hahahaha. Ah ha haaaa. A haaaa.

So that's you know... coming along. I'm working with a vocal coach. Strengthening the "ahhaa". A lot of guys ignore the laugh and that's about standards. I mean, if you're going to get into the Evil League of Evil you HAVE to have a memorable laugh. I mean do you think Bad Horse didn't work on his whinny? His terrible... Death... whinny.

No response, BTW from the League yet but my application is strong this year. A letter of condemnation from the deputy mayor. That's gotta have some weight, so, fingers crossed.

EMAILS! 2sly4you writes: "hey genius" wow. Sarcasm. That's ORIGINAL. "Where are the gold bars you were supposed to pull out of that bank vault with your trans-matter ray? Obviously it failed or it would be in the papers."

Well no, there not going to say anything in the press. But BEHOLD. Transported from there to here.

The molecules tend to shift in the trans-matter... um... event, but, they were transported IN BAR FORM and they clearly were... (and by the way it's not about making money. It's about TAKING money. Destroying the status-quo because the "status" is NOT "quo". The world is a mess and I just need to RULE it.) I'm gonna... that smells like cumin.

So, Trans-matter is 75% AND more importantly the Freeze-Ray is almost up. This is the one. Stops time. Freeze-ray. Tell your friends.

We have... OH! Here's one from our good friend Johnny Snow. "Dr. Horrible. I see you are once again afraid to do battle with your nemesis. I waited at Dooley Park for 45 minutes."

Ok, DUDE you're NOT my nemesis. My nemesis is Captain Hammer. Captain Hammer, Corporate TOOL. He dislocated my shoulder... Again... last week.

LOOK! I'm just trying to change the world, OK? I don't have time for a grudge match with every poser in a parka. Besides, there's kids in that park, so...

PENNY

Actually I'm out here volunteering for the Caring Hands Homeless Shelter. Can you spare a minute?

DR. HORRIBLE

Umm... Ok, go.

PENNY

Ok, we're hoping to open up a new location soon, expand our efforts. There's this great building nearby that the city is just going to demolish and turn into a parking lot, but if we get enough signatures...

DR. HORRIBLE

Signatures? pfft

PENNY

Yeah.

DR. HORRIBLE

I'm sorry, go on.

PENNY

I was saying um, maybe we could get the city to donate the building to our cause. We would be able to provide 250 new beds, get people off the streets and into job training so they could... buy rocket packs and go to the moon and become... florists... You're not really interested in the homeless are you?

DR. HORRIBLE

No, I am. But they're a symptom. You're treating a symptom and the disease rages on, consumes the human race. The fish rots from the head as they say. So my thinking is why not cut off the head?

PENNY

Of the human race?

DR. HORRIBLE

It's not a perfect metaphor... but I'm talking about an overhaul of the system. Putting the power in... DIFFERENT... hands.

PENNY

I'm all for that... This petition is about the building...
