JUDGE DREDD

FADE IN:

BLACK SCREEN.

NARRATOR
In the third millennium, the world... changed.

1 MONTAGE (STOCK - IF DESIRED) 1

NARRATOR (CONT’D)
Climate. Nations. Borders. All were in upheaval. Humanity itself turned as violent as the planet. Civilization threatened to collapse. And then... a solution was found. The crumbling, teetering legal system was merged with the overburdened police, creating a powerful and efficient hybrid. Trained equally in jurisprudence and combat, these new guardians (X) of Society could dispense both justice and punishment. They were (X) police, jury and executioner, all in one. They were... The Judges.
5 EXT. WASTELAND - DAY 5

It looks like the beginning of time... or its end. Nothing grows here. Nothing could. This is the CURSED EARTH. With a WHIRR, a SHUTTLE appears in the sky. We PAN it to a GIANT CITY WALL. A LOCK-LIKE GATE chugs open. The shuttle ENTERS.

6 INT. CITY LOCK - DAY 6

As the massive craft settles, it is sprayed down by HI-POWERED JETS. Brown dirt drips away to show eroding metal and the LOGO:

"MEGA-CITY JUDGE SYSTEM - ASPEN PRISON SHUTTLE #3."

P.A. SYSTEM

ASPEN PRISON SHUTTLE DOCKED. (X)

PAROLEES, PREPARE TO DISEMBARK. (X)

The shuttle's air lock port whooses OPEN. A line of drably dressed men and women exit, carrying their few possessions.

7 THE CITY LOCK - INNER GATE TO CITY - DAY 7

One by one the parolees return to society. We follow the last:

HERMAN FERGUSON ("FERGIE"). Fergie's a.genius - a genius without common sense, street smarts, or muscle tone. So his career as a master criminal has gone absolutely nowhere.

It was the only way!

DREDD
Not at all. You could have climbed out a window, worked your way down.
Or found a turboshift and shimmied down the cable.

FERGIE
Sixty stories? It woulda been suicide!

DREDD
Maybe. But it would have been legal. I sentence you to five years in. Aspen Penitentiary. Case closed.
Take him away.

Hello, Warden.

64 REVERSE ANGLE 64
We're in a large circular room. In the center is an isolated PLATFORM. A curtain of BLUE LIGHT surrounds it. Behind this, GURE draws a bead of sweat from his forehead... ansently flicks it at the energy curtain. It SIZZLES. The -icure moves CLOSER. This is RICO.

RICO(CONT'D)
Have you come for another... chat?

MILLER
A short one, I'm afraid. Duty calls.

RICO

(LAUGHS )
We're both prisoners here. You behind a desk... me behind..., this. Fargo's reward for our services.

MILLER
When you killed innocent people you went far beyond-'service.
Rico stands. Moves toward the energy curtain. Glares at Miller.

RICO
"Innocent"? A meaningless word.
The innocent exist only until they inevitably become perpetrators themselves. In the end, "Guilt" and "Innocence" are merely a matter of timing.

MILLER
'You're insane.

RICO
Am I? When did you become a perpetrator? Was it the time you found money mysteriously transferred into your account? Or the time I was sentenced to death? You've been taking bribes for years, Warden. You're a criminal. And a stupid one: You don't even know who's paying you.

MILLER
I don't want to know.

RICO
If ignorance is bliss, Warden, then (X) you must be very blissful.

Miller, why are you here?

MILLER

MILLER

Really. And what is the meaning of Life?
RICO
It's over.
And he AIMS the "puzzle". BLAM!

The SHOT from the tiny weapon hits him in the throat. Gasping, he falls onto his knees. With one hand on his throat, he staggers to the door while Rico descends from his platform.

The guards only see Miller's body. Then Rico swings down from his hiding place - the turret of an autogun! He KICKS out with both feet - drives both Guards nto'the Energy Curtain. ZAP! They're instantly FRIED.
Rico dismounts like an acrobat, holds his badge up towards the autoQun scanner. BEEP. The autoguns pivots away. The DOOR OPENS. Rico snatches up a weapon - steps outside -

Rico moves towards the door. Pauses.

I INT. APARTMENT - NIGHT

A total wreck. Electronic equipment still SIZZLES here.

Dredd

lifts a viewie of Hershey and some friends from the Academy. The three women LAUGH and wave as he touches it.

FERGIE

I guess you're out of friends, Dredd.

24C NEW ANGLE 240

Hershey, weapon in hand, steps inside. She's battered, beat up, and edgy. The way the light hits the room she can only see one figure.

HERSHEY

Up against the wall, now! The figure complies. It's Fergie.

HERSHEY

(RECOGNIZING HIM)

Ferguson. You're the hacker we arrested. What are you doing here?

FERGIE

I'm with him. steps into the light.

HERSHEY

Dredd! ' - a moment she's elated. Then her face hardens. She holds n steady.

Stay where you are.

DREDD

Hershey. What is it - ?
HERSHEY
They're dying out-there, Dredd.
A hundred and eight Judges in 48 hours. Everyone who's left is on triple shifts and pseudorphin. I thought it was organized criminals, revolutionaries, something... then I was a target.

HERSHEY
I don't know what to think anymore.
Dredd moves like lightning - pins her gun hand against the wall - then freezes. It's a challenge, not a threat. She glares at him - counter moves - gets an elbow against his throat!

But Dredd doesn't break her hold - or turn the gun on her. It's deliberate check-mate on both their parts.

DREDD

(QUIETLY)
Do you really think I'd hurt you?

HERSHEY
Secrets can hurt more than anything.
She relaxes her hold on him. Throws something down.

24= NEW ANGLE 241

HERSHEY (CONT'D)
Tell me about him, Dredd. Make me believe in you again the way I did when I defended you.
DREDD

(SLOWLY)
His name is Rico. And he killed like this once before, nine years ago.

HERSHEY
And he's doing it again?

DREDD
Him... and Griffin.

HERSHEY
Griffin? We have to tell the Council - !

, DREDD
There is no Council, Hershey: They were all murdered an hour ago.

242 HERSHEY 242
She's been on her feet for days and this is the last psychic blow. She sags. Dredd catches her.

Hershey is on what's left of the bed. She holds a cup of coffee, more interested in its warmth than its contents. Dredd is nearby. With the borrowed helmet off, we see how haggard he looks. In the other room, Fergie putters with the wrecked computer.

HERSHEY

(SOFTLY)
Clones. Clones, from a genetic laboratory.
(pause, wryly)
I guess I wasn't so bad in court after all. That's why the DNA convicted you. You and Rico are...

DREDD
The same. Inhuman. Defective. He just broke down, first.

HERSHEY
No!

DREDD
How many times have you said I had no feelings, no emotions? Now you know why. (x)

HERSHEY

ENTL
Dredd. Children were born in laboratories, even back in the twentieth century... test tube babies, in vitro fertilization. No one ever questioned their HUMANITY -

DREDD
It's not the same! They had parents, they embraced their humanity... they didn't hide it... fight it... question it!

HERSHEY
Dredd. The Janus project didn't do that to you. You did that to yourself. He turns, startled. Realizes she's right.

DREDD
(almost in wonder)
Myself. Griffin. Fargo. Even Fergie. I've been wrong about so much...

HERSHEY
Never the Law, Dredd. Never the Law.
That means more than anything else she can say to him. He looks into her eyes. Fergie comes in, ends the moment.

FERGIE
You can forget the terminal out here. We're gonna have to go somewhere else to get in the System.

DREDD
(after a moment)
Hershey. You just said I was never wrong about the Law. They took away my badge. I'm a convicted murderer. I have no authority any more - no legal authority.
Pause. without the law as a safety net, Dredd is in uncharted emotional territory.

DREDD (CONT'D)
Will ...will you help me, Hershey? Not as a Judge but... but... as my friend?
':s the most ordinary request anyone could make... anyone but Dredd. Hershey understands how much it means. She fights back :ears, puts her hand on his arm.

HERSHEY
I'd be honored.
Dredd reaches over, squeezes her hand. There's absolutely nc:n:nc sexual about it - and that makes it even more powerful.

By now the CAMERA is in Olmeyer's student pod. Olmeyer, (X) Fergie and Hershey are in a corner, watching and whispering. edd is on the other side of the cubicle, at a Central Station.

' r e's wearing his own helmet and badge again.

CENTRAL
I am sorry, but the location of the Janus Lab is classified information, accessible only to Chief Justice Griffin and Council Judge Rico.

DREDD
(EXPLODING)
Rico? He's a Council Judge now?

CENTRAL
Actually, the onl Council Judge. Chief Justice Griffin promoted him so they could both use me to get the Janus Lab up and running.

DREDD
You're helping them?

,-CENTRAL
Of course. They are the highest ranking surviving Judges in Mega-City. I am programmed to obey them.

DREDD
But they're breaking the law! Who the hell programmed you?

(PATIENTLY)

Chief Justice Griffin and Council Judge Rico are my lawful superiors unless and until criminal charges are filed against them.

DREDD
Fine! I'll file charges!

CENTRAL

(CHIDING)
Now, we've already been over that one: You're not a Judge anymore and you can't file charges.
Flash of inspiration. Dredd excitedly signals Hershey.

HERSHEY
Central. This is Judge Hershey. I hereby file formal charges of murder against Chief Justice Griffin and Council Judge Rico. And I order you to give me the location of the Janus Lab so that I may personally make the arrest!

CENTRAL

Certainly, Judge Hershey. However, as per Mega-City Code Section 84, Paragraph "A", I need authorization from the Chief Justice to arrest a Council Judge. Similarly, as stated in Paragraph "B", same Section, I need authorization from any Council Judges to arrest a Chief Justice. In this case, that would be Chief Judge Griffin and Council Judge Rico.

DREDD

(THROWN)
We need permission from them to arrest... them?

CENTRAL

Basically... yes. And without their authorization you cannot file charges, and without charges I cannot violate Security and tell you the location of the Lab.
