OUR TEACHING CLERGY

Rabbi David Barnett
Rabbi David Barnett, Temple Torat Emet, received his rabbinic ordination from the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1986. He had the distinction of serving as Assistant Rabbi at Har Zion Temple in Penn Valley, PA, and subsequently served in various congregational Rabbinic and Cantorial positions in Southern California for over two decades. Since 2011, Rabbi Barnett has been sharing his talents and expertise with congregations on the East Coast while successfully serving in multiple interim rabbinic positions.

Rabbi Anthony Fratello
Rabbi Anthony Fratello, Temple Shaarei Shalom, graduated from Pomona College in 1994 with a BA in History, and then began his studies toward the Rabbinate at the Jerusalem Campus of the Hebrew Union College. He continued his studies at the Cincinnati campus of HUC-TIR in 1995. Rabbi Fratello earned his MA in Hebrew Letters from the Hebrew Union College in 1998, and was ordained as a Rabbi in June 1999. Rabbi Fratello has served as a member of the Board of the Mandel Jewish Community Center of the Palm Beaches and the Friedman Commission for Jewish Education.

Cantor Irving Grossman
Cantor Irving Grossman, Temple Beth Tikvah, is a graduate of the Cantors Institute of the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York City, where he earned the degree of Hazzan. He has studied extensively with the world famous Cantor David Kusevitsky. He is working with congregants to develop a junior choir as well as an adult choir to enhance the beauty & solemnity of our religious services. As an active member of the Cantor’s Assembly, Cantor Grossman frequently participates in Cantorial concerts.

Cantor Judith Ovadia
Cantor Judith Ovadia, Temple Shaarei Shalom, hails from Lower Merion, PA, just outside Philadelphia. She began singing and playing guitar at the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (now URJ) Camp Harlam. Cantor Ovadia earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Sarah Lawrence College in Bronxville, New York, where she was a soloist with the college chorus, under the direction of Harold Aks. She attended the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion School of Sacred Music, where she received her Master of Sacred Music degree.

Rabbi Howard Shub
Rabbi Shub, Temple Beth Tikvah, was born in Toronto, Canada. He earned his BA in Jewish History at Yeshiva University, NY, earned his MA in Contemporary Jewry at Hebrew University, Jerusalem, Israel, and was ordained at the Jewish Theological Seminary, NY, where he also earned an MA in Jewish Education. He is currently working on his PhD in Jewish History and Jewish Literature at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.

Rabbi Michael Simon
Rabbi Simon, Temple Beth Kodesh, is a graduate of the Yeshivah of Flatbush and obtained rabbinic ordination from the Mesifta Adas Wolkowisk. He received a BA in Political Science from Pace University, a JD from Fordham University, and an MA in Jewish Studies from Gratz College. Rabbi Simon practiced law for 20 years before becoming the Rabbi at Temple Beth Kodesh. Rabbi Simon also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Rabbinics at Gratz College, an Adjunct Instructor of Jewish History at FAU, and has previously served as a faculty member of the Florence Melton Adult Mini-School.
