

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

When it comes your health information, you have certain rights which are explained below:

You have the right to:

Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record	If you would like to receive a copy of your record, please contact us at the email or phone number below. We will provide you with a copy or summary of your information within 30 days of your request. If you would like a paper copy, we charge a fee of $15.
Correct your paper or electronic medical record	If you feel that your record is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to correct it. However, we may say “no” to your request. If this is the case, we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request confidential communication	If you would like us to contact you a specific way (i.e., home vs. office phone) or to send mail to a different address please let us know and we will.
Ask us to limit the information we share	You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. However, we are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.
Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared your information	You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
Get a copy of this privacy notice	You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
Choose someone to act for you	If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do and we will follow your instructions.

- In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:
 - Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
 - Share information in a disaster relief situation
 - Include your information in a hospital directory
 - If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.
- In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:
 - Marketing purposes
 - Sale of your information
 - Most sharing of psychotherapy notes
- In the case of fundraising:
 - We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you	We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you. Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.
Run our agency	We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.
Bill for your services	We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities. Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.
