

CPEC MAIN AUCTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following rules & conditions have been established to protect CPEC against unforeseen & unreasonable costs that could affect the positive work achieved during our fundraising event. Please ensure you understand them before making a bid.

- ❖ Auction goods/services will be displayed (where possible) prior to bidding for viewing by guests. All goods are as described or displayed.
- ❖ Approximate values of items are advised by donors as estimates. They are not warranted by CPEC.
- ❖ Unless otherwise specified, items/services must be used within the specified time period advised.
- ❖ None of the trips, accommodation services or items offered for auction in this catalogue can be converted to cash and are subject to the provider's normal trading terms & conditions unless otherwise specified.
- ❖ All sales are final, and goods/services are sold as found with faults, if any, and there will be no exchange or refunds on goods/services, excepting as implied or expressed by any manufacturer's warranty or services or by law. Any expression by the auctioneer or on behalf of the auctioneer or CPEC is an expression of opinion only and shall not be deemed to constitute a warranty.
- ❖ Payments must be made on the night at the Cashier's Table. Cash, Visa, MasterCard and cheque are acceptable methods of payment. All values as advertised in the catalogue include GST; bids are deemed to include GST, where applicable.
- ❖ All goods may be collected from the collection station on presentation of your receipt itemising your PAID purchases at completion of the auction. All items must be removed from the premises by the successful bidder on the night of the auction, unless otherwise arranged.
- ❖ The highest bidder will be the purchaser. The auctioneer may, without any reason, refuse to accept the bidding of any person/s, and if a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the item in dispute, at the sole discretion of the auctioneer, may be put up again and resold. CPEC will accept telephone bidding on the night provided a representative or nominated bidder is appointed from CPEC who will be responsible for payment on the telephone bidder's behalf on the night
- ❖ Unless otherwise advised, all unclaimed items (including vouchers) will be held for a period of seven days (7), after which they will be deemed abandoned and title shall pass to CPEC, subject to any law to the contrary, and the bidder agrees that the item will become the property of CPEC. No refunds will be made under any circumstance.
- ❖ Under all circumstances the Auctioneer will have the final ruling on any item that there is a dispute over. It is the responsibility of all bidders to clearly make their intentions known to the Auctioneer

CPEC SILENT AND HIGH END AUCTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- ❖ The Master of Ceremonies will announce to all guests when the silent auction is about to close.
- ❖ All items in the Silent Auction will have bid sheets attached. Bidders must clearly print their name, table number and bid amount on the specified sheet.
- ❖ Only bid increments of $5.00 or more for the General Silent Auction and $10.00-20.00 for the high end/Reserved Silent Auction will be deemed valid. Bid increments of less than this will be disregarded.
- ❖ A reserve applies to all items. CPEC may withhold sale of any item that fails to reach the reserve bid.
- ❖ All items on display are available as displayed.
- ❖ Any values recorded under items are advised by donor estimates they are not warranted by CPEC.
- ❖ Where applicable, and unless otherwise specified, items/services must be used within the specified time period advised. Special conditions apply to certain items. None of the items offered for auction in this catalogue can be converted to cash and all lots are subject to the provider's normal trading terms & conditions unless otherwise specified.
- ❖ Successful bidders will be advised if they are successful in their bid.
- ❖ The risk and expense in relation to an item passes to the successful bidder, once successful bids are announced.
- ❖ Payments must be made at the Cashier's Table on presentation of the bid sheet. Cash, Visa, MasterCard and cheque are acceptable methods of payment. All values as presented include GST; bids are deemed to include GST, where appropriate.
- ❖ All goods may be collected upon presentation of your receipt with the itemised numbers of your winning bids.
- ❖ All items must be removed from the premises by the successful bidder on the night of the auction unless otherwise arranged.
- ❖ Unless otherwise advised, all unclaimed items (including vouchers) will be held for a period of seven days (7), after which they will be deemed abandoned and title shall pass to CPEC, subject to any law to the contrary, and the bidder agrees that the item will become the property of CPEC. No refunds will be made under any circumstance.
