

NC-PC Pretreatment Certification 2020 Class Status Update

You are receiving this letter because you have registered for the 2020 North Carolina Pretreatment Consortium Certification School originally scheduled to take place April 27 – May 1, 2020 at the Village Inn in Clemmons, NC.

Due to the current situation related to the COVID-19 virus, class has been re-scheduled.

New class dates are November 16 – 20, 2020.

We are offering you the following options as they pertain to your class registration:

1. Retain your current registration which would allow you to attend the class in November
2. Receive a full refund of your registration fees

Please let me know what you would like to do by April 3, 2020. If I do not hear from you, I will presume you will attend in November and I will keep you registered.

If you had a hotel reservation for April and used the group code when you made it, the hotel will automatically cancel your reservation. You do not need to call the hotel. If you did not use the group code when you booked your room, you must call the hotel to cancel it.

Everyone that wants to come to school in November will need to call the hotel and re-book a room.
