

How we do Weddings, Social and Family Events at Leigh Central

How we do Weddings, Social & Family Events

We have created two delightful event spaces that can be hired together or separately.

Newly renovated from what was once the old Leigh Hotel, the décor is coastal, tasteful and minimal, offering you a fresh canvas on which to put your individual touch.

Our pricing and format is based on the fact that we are primarily configured to be a DIY (Do It Yourself) venue. We have set a base hire rate for the venue rooms and then a per head fee for the chattels and extras available through us.

We will liaise with you beforehand and walk you through the details, providing our expertise, local contacts and advice to help make the venue work best for you. Then it's up to you to takeover and make your special day happen the way you want it to. The catering, service, set up, clean up and decorating is your responsibility to arrange according to your own style and budget. We'll be there to lend a hand but ultimately it's your space for the day! However, unlike hiring a local hall – our DIY, BYO venue looks like a million dollars and has the views to match!

If DIY is not your thing but you love our venue, then talk to us about upscaling your event and engaging the services of an event manager and planner to do the work for you.

Commercial Kitchen & Chattels

In addition to our venue spaces, we have also installed a substantial Commercial Kitchen and some lovely bathrooms!

Other essentials like chairs and tables, crockery, cutlery, lighting, some decorative items and kitchen extras are included in your per head fee. Not included are wine glasses and round tablecloths (you will need to hire these separately), and we also have some optional extras such as hi-fi sound & lighting, wine barrels, beer keg chiller & special kitchen gear etc. that you can hire separately from us.

You may choose to do your own decorating and catering yourselves, but we also have connections with recommended local providores, caterers, events staff, and some local hands for hire for service and cleaning should you need some extra help. If your event is a private one, and no alcohol is sold, BYO alcohol is permitted and there is no corkage fee.

Because each event is unique in terms of size, style and how much you wish to hire from us – we don't have a 'one-size fits all' package to list here. If you are interested in finding out more, contact us using the form below or call Jasmin on 027 439 3886 to arrange a time for a 'no obligation' visit. We love showing guests our space and sitting down with them to discuss the particulars of their special day. We have included a rough pricing and hire guide below.

With its fabulous location right in the heart of beautiful Leigh, and the option to book out the whole place for your guests with our Coastel Motel accommodation, Boatshed Cabins and Motorhome Park onsite, we think Leigh Central is the perfect getaway spot for your special event or celebration.
